A REMINDER OF SENATE'S REASON FOR EXISTENCE

California Code of Regulations § 53200

Academic Senate means an organization whose primary function is to make recommendations with respect to academic and professional matters. Academic and professional matters means the following policy development matters:

1. Curriculum, including establishing prerequisites.
2. Degree and certificate requirements.
3. Grading policies.
4. Educational program development.
5. Standards or policies regarding student preparation and success.
6. College governance structures, as related to faculty roles.
7. Faculty roles and involvement in accreditation processes.
8. Policies for faculty professional development activities.
9. Processes for program review.
10. Processes for institutional planning and budget development.
11. Other academic and professional matters as mutually agreed upon.

These academic and professional matters are often called the 10 + 1 items over which the senate faculty have primacy. The intent of the law is to assure effective participation of all relevant parties, and to ensure that the local governing board engages in collegial consultation with the Academic Senate on matters that are academic and professional in nature. Consult collegially means that the district governing board shall develop policies on academic and professional matters through either or both of the following:

1. Rely primarily upon the advice and judgment of the Academic Senate.
2. The governing board, or its designees, and the Academic Senate shall reach mutual agreement by written resolution, regulation, or policy of the governing board effectuating such recommendations. (El Camino's selection)

Education Code §87360 (b) requires that

Hiring criteria, policies and procedures for new faculty members shall be developed and agreed upon jointly by representatives of the governing board, and the academic senate, and approved by the governing board.¹

Summary of events during meeting

1. We will need to address the issue of “ghost students” potentially enrolled in classes.
2. The constitutional amendment to allow senate to hold non-paper elections was ratified.

3. Online curriculum forms will be available in summer. Old courses will likely be input into the new electronic system once a person is hired to do that.
4. Compton's Faculty Council guidelines were drafted. See packet & handouts.
5. Compton will have 2 back-to-back five-week summer sessions in summer 2007.
6. Board Policy 4040 (Library) passed as submitted.
7. There was a first reading of constitutional amendment incorporating centers.

President's report – Susan Dever (henceforth SD)

1. SD distributed a handout about a workshop titled Faculty Perspectives on Enrollment Management on Friday, April 27. Please nominate yourself and others that may be able to attend. The results of this conference and the previous version, held earlier primarily for administrators, will lead the way for future events, and is a good example of collegial consultation. See the handout and/or the email SD sent out.
2. Also, on the reverse side of the above handout is another attempt to solicit information about faculty interactions with new administrators.
3. SD is soliciting a non-Fine Arts instructor to serve on the Fine Arts hiring panel.
4. At College Council yesterday, President Fallo reported on his meeting with Senator Dymally about Compton. President Fallo also reported on his visit with Tom Henry, special trustee at Compton, and their visit to the accreditation commission. The commission understands the nature of the situation between ECC & Compton well. ECC has put together a "grid" in response to the Fraud Audit report that will help ECC prevent the kind of fraud at ECC that Compton experienced. There has also been discussion about the Student Services Building. The design is nearly done. There will be meetings with counselors and other staff.

Minutes approved as amended

Educational Policies Report – Evelyn Uyemura

Senate will be voting on two policies today.

Faculty Development – Lisa Raufman

Meetings on April 19 & 24 from 12:45-2pm to discuss the August flex day and the Great Teachers Seminar (GTS). ECC can send 3-4 people this year to the GTS, depending on space. There will be another meeting in the same location as the GTS that will last 3.5 days and will occur in between spring and summer sessions, in early June. On Course training took place recently and a large number of ECC's faculty have been trained using On Course. We will increase the number of workshops for On Course.

Finance and Special Projects – Lance Widman

No report from the Deans' Council. The agenda for the last PBC meeting appears on page 58. PBC is working on the preliminary budget. There will be more discussion about the March 22 PBC meeting at the next senate meeting, when minutes for that meeting are available. Lance also serves on the Insurance Benefits Committee (IBC) as part of his duties for PBC. A handout about the IBC was distributed.

Legislative Action – Pete Marcoux

Locally we need to discuss the Policy for dropping students. See the last page (76) in the packet. We need to make sure that our procedures are consistent with the state's policy so that we don't have any "ghost students" in our classes. Our policy states that students are responsible for dropping themselves. But recent audits have turned up some issues, which will be explored at the next senate meeting. This is an issue because if there are "ghost students," we collect money for them even though they aren't attending class.

A question, "A student was dropped for non-attendance, but the student asked for re-instatement, was re-instated, and still has not shown up. What to do?" Instructor's discretion.

Also noted: it would be easier to handle issues like these if faculty could drop students online, rather than on paper. Current processes encourage faculty to back-date active enrollment reports, rather than taking care of drops immediately. SD suggested that you contact Chris Wells with issues like this, because he is serving on a committee with Bill Mulrooney to address this type of concern.

Senate's Constitutional Amendment - Election result

Karen Larson reported that our proposed amendment to our constitution passed 155-13, so we can now do senate elections online.

Curriculum Committee – Janet Young

At the last meeting, the committee reviewed Health Sciences and Athletics as well as other divisions' proposals. A more detailed report will be given at the next meeting. Also, Title 5 has changed such that the minimum requirements for AA degrees will increase in Fall 2009. These will include a higher math requirement "at the level of intermediate algebra." This has been discussed in past senate meetings.

Distance Education Course Development guidelines & procedures will be reviewed at the next senate meeting.

The committee is revising Major and Certificate forms to better meet the needs of faculty preparers.

Question: When will online curriculum forms be available? During summer. Also noted, VP Arce hopes to hire someone to put all active courses into that software.

Compton Center report – Saul Panski

In the packet is a very preliminary draft of the Compton Faculty Council guidelines. It was a very preliminary draft; a more recent draft was distributed during the meeting. These guidelines are presented for informational and feedback purposes only. We will not be voting on this item until it has been examined more. It is being developed in consultation with the new Special Trustee. Compton is also changing its district's senate constitution so that it doesn't interfere with ECC senate-related issues.

Student Learning Outcomes – Lars Kjeseth & Jenny Simon

No report.

Calendar Committee – Lyman Hong

The committee approved 2 back-to-back five-week, five-day-a-week summer terms for Compton. Why is it different from ours? To serve the needs of that community and based on Compton administrators' recommendations. Compton has had 2 five-week terms traditionally and we are restoring that tradition. The calendar committee will be meeting regularly to examine the 08-09 and 09-10 calendars. Nothing has come up regarding eliminating winter session.

Academic Technology Committee – Pete Marcoux, Michael Wynne

Next meeting is tomorrow at 2pm.

Accreditation – Arvid Spor & Susan Dever

The 9 separate accreditation standard subcommittees have been meeting. First drafts are due on May 4. On May 14, these drafts will be put on the portal for wider examination. There will also be open forums to discuss the drafts. Second drafts will be done in Fall 2007.

Enrollment Management – Francisco Arce & Jeanie Nishime

No reports beyond items above.

Unfinished Business

Board Policy 4040 – page 43

Before discussing the proposed policy, there were suggestions to change the policy. After much discussion, no changes were made and the motion passed.

Constitution Changes – page 59

This is a first reading of the proposed changes to the senate constitution. During the meeting, the proposal was amended in the definitions section to include “faculty council” as an alternate word for “educational center council.” Previous discussions were incorporated into the proposal.

Noted: The draft of the Faculty Council guidelines includes a ratification by the overall senate of the center's Council bylaws.

Final reading next time.

New Business

SD posted resolutions for the state senate on the website. These resolutions will be reviewed by the statewide area council this weekend.

SD would like to have one senate meeting at Compton this semester. It will be a short meeting. The idea is to get the Compton faculty to take ownership of the ECC senate and so everybody realizes that the ECC senate represents them and vice versa. A subcommittee will be chosen to deal with this.

Presentations

Joanna Nacheff, director of choral activities at ECC, recently took a trip to NYC with 37 ECC students, including the ECC Chorale. They had an opportunity to perform in front of 2000 people in Carnegie Hall. There were several solo performances. Programs of the event were distributed.

ECC also has an international musical presence, through the Global Education Through Technology (GETT) program. The GETT program enrolls 19 international (Lebanese) students in Dr. Nacheff's program. There will be a joint performance on May 19 at 8pm.

Announcements

Walt Kahan had a quadruple bypass recently. He is recovering well.

Julie Stewart was recently diagnosed with multiple myeloma, a form of bone cancer. Vince Lloyd is serving in her position as representative to the curriculum committee.

Meeting was adjourned at 1:55pm.

El Camino College
2008 Accreditation Self-Study Steering Committee Meeting
March 16, 2007

Members Present: F. Arce, S. Dever, D. Goldberg, I. Graff, A. Grigsby, J. Marsee, J. Noyes, B. Perez, A. Spor, C. Striepe, L. Suekawa, E. Uyemura, M. Wade, J. Wagstaff

The meeting began at 2:10 p.m.

Reminder: May 4, 2007 is the deadline to submit the first draft of all standards to the committee co-chairs, A. Spor and S. Dever.

I. Updates:

Standard I A&B – Institutional Mission and Effectiveness (I. Graff)

- Over fifty- percent of submissions turned in.
- Conducted a writing workshop with the group – reviewed each submission and suggested areas for improvement.

Standard II A – Instructional Programs (D. Goldberg and E. Uyemura)

- Sixteen out of twenty-four components have been completed on paper. Two are in progress and the remaining six will be divided between the standard co-chairs.
- One-on-one meetings with individual committee members and going over examples have helped.
- Is there a document repository set up for supporting documentation? Will ask members to send their documents electronically and set up an index listing for all sub-standards. Will probably have duplicate documents, but that's ok.

Standard II B – Student Support Services (L. Suekawa)

- Members were asked to write narratives on the bulleted points submitted previously. The narratives are due next week.

Standard II C – Library and Learning Support Services (A. Grigsby and C. Striepe)

- Evidence was collected first so that members knew of or had access to the evidence materials.
- Most of the evidence collected was in paper form but can be scanned and saved in electronic form. The accrediting body requires hardcopy with electronic evidence.
- Meeting minutes not useful as evidence – still needed to find actual documents noted in minutes.
- The Curriculum Handbook is available online.
- The Compton Center library contact is very helpful source of information.
- One or two assignments are outstanding.
- Likes the idea of having a writing workshop.

Standard III A – Human Resources (B. Perez and M. Wade)

- Reviewed what was completed so far and will give update in a few weeks.
- The accrediting body would like to see one code of ethics for the entire college – “Does the institution have a written code of professional ethics for all personnel?” The “Rights and Responsibilities” pertain to students but there isn't a written code for employees. Standards of behavior are incorporated in the faculty contract.

- A committee member is drafting a ‘code of ethics’ and will bring to College Council. Suggestion was made to form a task force made up of campus constituents to draft the code of ethics or review what the committee member already drafted. It is not necessary to have one completed before the accreditation visit – it’s not the responsibility of the committee to develop one.

Standard III C – Technology Resources (J. Noyes and J. Wagstaff)

- The committee listed ideas and evidence collected so far.

Standard IV A&B – Leadership and Governance (F. Arce)

- Each committee member was given an assignment and the first draft was due last week. Only three were completed so far. The due date was extended to March 28.

II. Documentation

- Suggestion was made to collect all documentation in one place with access by all committee members. S. Dever said she will set up the discussion board to store documentation. The discussion board will show response to users when something is posted. Large documents can be viewed and shared. S. Dever will email the discussion board link to the committee members.
- Suggestion was made to have multiple backups (CDs and server) for electronic documents in the event of a computer crash.

III. General Discussion

- Is there a benchmark for ECC goals? The college’s seven strategic goals can be used as a starting point.
- Accrediting teams are asking for SLOs progress and how they are assessed, but focus more on program review and linking planning and budgeting components - causes for institutions being placed on warnings.
- Are teams using other college accreditation reports as guidelines? Good report samples: Golden West, Honolulu Community College, West L.A. College, and San Diego Mesa College. The downside of using sample reports: not knowing the outcome assessment by the accrediting body. But, American River College received the highest accreditation ranking a college can receive in 2004 – “without condition.”

IV. Compton Center Discussion

- Program review, planning and budgeting link to program review, evaluations and governance – Compton piece will be scrutinized. Should show how processes were implemented when Compton integrated with ECC.
- Compton’s approach to solve problems would address the institution’s integrity.
- ECC directs the Compton Center’s processes and procedures; no control over hiring and firing process or funding. Management of resources, not resources, is the issue.
- Accreditation commission is looking at the ECC and Compton Center relationship as one entity.

The meeting adjourned at 3:05 p.m.

Note taker: Lucy Nelson

Academic Technology Committee Meeting Minutes

28 November 2006

Stadium Room, Noon – 2 p.m.

Draft

In attendance: Jim Noyes, Virginia Rapp, Francis Baylen, Donna Post, Ralph Taylor, Alice Grigsby, LaTonya Motley, John Wagstaff, Robin Valle, Louis Sinopoli, Dovard Ross.

The minutes of the 14 November 2006 meeting of the Academic Technology Committee (ATC) were approved.

Academic Software:

The committee was reminded that the divisions need to send their software needs for the spring 2006 semester to John Wagstaff, director of information technology services (ITS), as soon as possible. John would like the quotes (as much information as possible), and he will create a purchase order. Committee members requested that ITS send a report back to the division once the purchase order has been created.

The committee noted that Compton's software needs have not been addressed by the committee, so Arnel Pasqual needs to be contacted. Integration of ECC and Compton's software needs could produce benefits (e.g., cost savings owing to bulk orders of software or sharing the same license).

Microsoft Vista and Computer Labs:

Virginia Rapp, dean of business division, explained that the computers in their labs (both for classes and open labs) are too old to run the new Microsoft operating system Vista. Unless the computers are replaced, their division will be unable to train their students to use cutting-edge software, skills that they will need in their future careers. Decisions about whether or not to offer training in Microsoft Vista for the fall 2007 semester need to be made immediately.

John Wagstaff noted that machines capable of running MS Vista are only now becoming available, and expressed reluctance to try to upgrade every computer on campus to run Vista. His primary criterion for upgrading computers and software is security (e.g., when Microsoft stops issuing security patches).

The committee noted that ECC needs a procedure for better utilizing old-but-usable computers. For example, a hand-me-down computer from a computer science professor would be more-than-adequate for most writing faculty. Some places on campus (e.g., admissions) are still running MS 2000, and could also make good use of only slightly outdated computers.

Computer labs at ECC have often been constructed piecemeal (e.g., 10 machines at a time) when funds for a few more machines become available. As a result, a single lab can have machines with very different capabilities, and often a significant percentage of labs' machines cannot run the latest software. Hopefully the lab inventory carried out by ITS will help us allocate resources more effectively in the future.

The need for regular funding (annual) for software (e.g., maintain licenses) and hardware (e.g., periodically upgrade and replace) was discussed.

“Sharing” Technology in Classrooms:

Often, faculty from one division will use a classroom with technology installed by another division. This has led to a number of conflicts when the technology is abused (e.g., used to view pornography, gambling, installing new software and/or changing settings, leaving the room or cabinets open and thus letting equipment be stolen). In many cases, the division that installed the technology found that their own courses were disrupted, and therefore do not want to “share” the technology with other divisions.

Conflicts typically involved use of the computers in each classroom. The committee concluded that faculty from the divisions that did not purchase the computer should be encouraged to use their laptop (part-time faculty can borrow one from their division) to access the LCD projector. The main problem with this plan is insuring that everyone at ECC has access to laptops. For example, while faculty received new laptops, other areas (e.g., media services) did not. John Wagstaff said that ITS has 10 unclaimed faculty laptops and 10 refurbished laptops that might help alleviate the problem.

Technology Taskforce Update:

John Wagstaff described some of the possible system-wide projects being discussed by the Technology Taskforce. These projects will attempt to address ECC’s strategic goals. The taskforce is in the process of identifying what can be achieved by each project and their cost. Once this is done, the projects will be given to campus technology committees for their perusal and responses, and then sent to the Planning and Budgeting Committee.

Future Meetings:

No date was set for a future meeting. The committee will reconvene sometime early in the spring 2007 semester.

Submitted by Jim Noyes

Academic Technology Committee Meeting Minutes

4 April 2007

Library 202, 2 p.m. – 3:30 p.m.

Draft

In attendance: Jim Noyes, Virginia Rapp, Donna Post, Ralph Taylor, John Wagstaff, Robin Valle, Pete Marcoux, Don Treat, Francis Baylen, Dwayne Hayden

Funding of Technology:

John Wagstaff told the committee that (at the moment) $900,000 is budgeted for campus hardware and $900,000 is budgeted for software. Regularizing the funding of software is a policy that the committee has advocated for a long time. It will help insure that our campus plans to service, maintain, and replace the technology it purchases.

Classroom Technology:

The committee discussed the need for uniformity in classroom technology and to make a “standard” for “smart classrooms.” Standardizing classroom technology would provide many benefits. For example, professors can be certain about the technology that they will find in their classroom, and design their course accordingly. Thus, classroom technology is less likely to be wasted (unused). In addition, providing maintenance, support, and training will be straightforward. Any professor could enter any classroom and focus on teaching, not figuring out what technology is present and how to get it to work. (Professors will not invest effort in revising a course to utilize a technology unless they know that it is present in every classroom in which they may be assigned to teach and that the technology will work.)

One problem with standardizing classroom technology (and other technology areas on campus) is that funding is allocated to divisions for equipment, and the divisions decide what they need. This can lead to duplication of effort and make it more difficult to service and maintain equipment. Moreover, funding is based on FTES served, not “need.” Some divisions (e.g., business courses on using computer software) have a greater need for technology than some other divisions.

The committee will request that Don Treat and Howard Story provide copies of their work on classroom technology standards on other campuses, and the committee will reconvene to begin drafting a standard.

Some classroom technology funding should be provided to professors who want to try a new technology in their classrooms. Such in-house “research and development” should provide valuable information before the campus adopts specific classroom technology campus-wide.

Student Emails:

It has been difficult to get students to use their ECC email accounts, so their ECC email addresses are still not a reliable way for their professors, the registrar, and others to reach the students. Communicating with student via email could significantly improve enrollment services and retention. Having students enter their preferred email address when they register may be better than giving an ECC email account to every student. However, some students need to have an ECC email account to use certain educational software used in our courses (e.g., Microsoft software).

Etudes Transition:

Five professors chose to use the new course management system (CMS) Etudes for their online courses in the spring 2007 semester. These online classes experienced a lengthy delay (about 4 days) at the beginning of the semester, because an inappropriately formatted roster was given to Etudes. In some cases, their enrollment suffered severely as a result. Committee members discussed some of the advantages and disadvantages of the Etudes CMS that “early-adopter” professors have uncovered. The “early adopters” will be contacted and asked to write up a list of improvements that we would like the Etudes consortium to make to Etudes.

Future Meetings:

The committee will meet on Wednesday, 4/25, from 2:30-4 pm. The committee will begin drafting a “classroom technology” standard for the campus and discuss academic software needs.

Academic Technology Committee
4 April 2007
2-3:30 pm

Agenda

1) Accreditation:

Several ATC members are involved in writing the technology component of the accreditation report.

- Where have you seen improvement in on-campus technology?
- Where would you most like to see improvement?

2) Online Rosters:

- What aspects of our class and roster should we be able to manage online?
- How should online roster management be implemented?
(And how should it not be implemented?)

3) Etudes:

Report on the transition to the Etudes course management system for distance education courses.

4) Classroom Technology:

Brainstorming about what we want to see in our classrooms, and planning for the future. There are many issues we can address; here are two:

- What are the essential components that our classrooms absolutely have to have?
- We want classroom technology to be used.
What logistical/ergonomic/access issues should we consider to make it easy-to-use?

VII. ADJOURNMENT

RESOLUTION ON REDUCTION/DISCONTINUANCE
OF EDUCATIONAL SERVICES

WHEREAS, on June 30, 2006, California enacted legislation (A.B.318) to ensure that students in the Compton Community College District obtain their education from an accredited institution;

WHEREAS, accredited education is now provided, within the borders of the Compton Community College District, at the El Camino Compton Community Educational Center, by way of a Memorandum of Understanding with the El Camino Community College District;

WHEREAS, the referenced legislation calls for the Center to provide a “full range of credit courses leading to an associate degree for Compton students”;

WHEREAS, the referenced legislation has allocated funds sufficient to ensure that instructional services meet the legislative mandate;

WHEREAS, over the past five years, under both local and state management, the Compton Community College District has funded instructional staffing at levels lower than any other district in the California Community College system;

WHEREAS, District expenditures for instructional staffing, as a percentage of total expenditures, have declined sharply in the first year of Center operations;

WHEREAS, the Special Trustee of the Compton Community College District, assuming the authority of the Compton Community College District Board of Trustees, approved Resolution No.06/07 – 022707C, to reduce or discontinue particular instructional services at the Center by the equivalent of 37 full-time employees;

WHEREAS, in the resolution, the Special Trustee expressly declined to base his decision upon a reduction of enrollment at Compton during the past two years;

WHEREAS, the resolution was supported only by “the opinion of the Special Trustee that it has become necessary to reduce or discontinue particular kinds of service now being performed by Compton CCD employees”;

WHEREAS, the resolution did not identify any economic necessity or any educational necessity for the Special Trustee’s decision;

WHEREAS, the resolution did not identify any established planning instrument, assessment model or review procedure to provide support for the Special Trustee’s decision;

WHEREAS, the Special Trustee did not make use of any established planning instrument, any established assessment model or any established review procedure in reaching his decision;

WHEREAS, in consequence of the resolution, 6 academic programs are to be discontinued and March 15 notices delivered to 19 Compton CCD faculty members;

WHEREAS, the decisions actually reached in these particular cases have no discernible rationale within an academic plan for the Center that would match program and course offerings to the needs of Compton students;

WHEREAS, the decisions reached compromise the legislative mandate to offer a full range of programs and courses leading to the associate degree;

WHEREAS, the resolution and decisions reached expressly contravene conditions laid down by the California Community College Chancellor, who has primary authority as Trustee of the Compton Community College District;

WHEREAS, despite the loss of accreditation, District/Center officials are professionally bound to comply with accreditation standards;

WHEREAS, the failure to adhere to established policy instruments and procedures would violate numerous accreditation standards if the Center were judged as a College;

WHEREAS, the Compton Academic Senate is authorized to make recommendations in such areas as educational program development, college governance, and institutional planning;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED,

First, for the reasons set forth, that the decisions reached in Resolution No.06/07 – 022707C be subject to a rigorous formal institutional planning, assessment and review process;

Second, that no May 15 notices be delivered unless and until such a process has been completed;

Third, that, in all matters hereafter, the leadership at Compton pay honor, in labor over lip service, to the norms of shared governance and integrated planning.

EL CAMINO COLLEGE
Office of the Vice President – Academic Affairs

NOTES – COUNCIL OF DEANS
15 MARCH 2007

Present: F. Arce, A. Collette, K. Curry, A. Garten, D. Goldberg, A. Grigsby, B. Jaffe, T. Lew, N. McCallum, G. Miranda, W. Mulrooney, R. Natividad, J. Nishime, D. Patel, B. Perez, J. Schwartz, A. Spor, K. Townsend, J. Wagstaff, L. Widman

I. DISCUSSION/ACTION

A. Enrollment Management:

- Recommendations developed at the Enrollment Management Workshop held on March 2 are being reviewed. Prioritization and planning process will be the next step.
- B. Mulrooney reported that a meeting will be held on March 23 to discuss online training of electronic rosters. B. Mulrooney will provide information to A. Garten to post information for faculty regarding this issue. The availability of electronic rosters is scheduled to begin fall 2007 although a pilot program will begin in summer 2007. Electronic rosters will allow registration to remain open without downtime prior to the beginning of the semester as experienced in the past. Concern was expressed if the computer system capacity would withstand the possibility of overload (i.e. students downloading schedule and faculty downloading rosters at the same time). It was suggested that printers be available (i.e. division offices) for faculty to print the rosters.

B. Recruitment Targets: Information on Fall 2007 Enrollment Goals by Program and Top 21 service area high schools was distributed. It was noted that counselors cannot be placed in out-of-district high schools unless an invitation is extended to the College. Other recruitment tools will need to be reviewed to reach out-of-district high school students. Public charter schools should be included in the College's current recruitment activities.

C. Accreditation Progress Report: The Progress Report will be included on the March 19 Board agenda for approval. Included in the report were the three recommendations made by the Accrediting Commission: (1) Program Review (2) classified evaluations (3) budget linked to planning and program review.

D. Planning Summit: The Planning Summit will be held on April 18-19 at Crestmont. Various collegial consultation groups will be invited to attend. The external data regarding economic, social and environmental data will be discussed.

E. Late Adds: B. Mulrooney will create a spreadsheet to include (1) number of students denied, (2) number of students asked for late adds after census; and (3) valid third time repeaters. It was noted that students who cannot register in classes they want should be provided with alternatives so that they do not drop out.

II. INFORMATION

- A. Introductions: The following were introduced as new members to the Deans Council: B. Jaffe – Associate Dean of Humanities and J. Schwartz – Interim Dean of Fine Arts.
- B. Noel Levitz: Noel-Levitz consultants will meet with faculty, staff and administrators at ECC and CEC on March 28-29 to conduct an assessment on recruitment and retention. On March 30, the consultants will present an exit briefing and preliminary assessment on both facilities. Various focus groups from Financial Aid, Admissions, Enrollment Management, academic deans/directors, staff, students, VPs, and faculty will be asked to participate.
- C. Student Success: An article on student success was distributed. The article addressed multiple reasons for attending community college.

The College received $400,000 in supplemental funds for developmental and basic skills in Math and English. B. Jaffe, T. Lew and D. Goldberg are working on initiatives to ramp up this area. Funding opportunities may continue beyond this year.

- D. Academic Senate: L. Widman provided an update of the last Academic Senate meeting: -
 -- The audit policy was reviewed and final adoption will be presented at the next Senate meeting.
 -- The impact of curriculum after A. Collette's upcoming retirement (Note: position will be filled).
 -- Ongoing concerns expressed by CEC Academic Senate regarding reduction of some faculty positions and programs.
- E. Information Technology:
 -- Allowing faculty to add students on electronic rosters will not be available at this time. Issues such as fee holds, repeats and prerequisites will need to be worked out.
 -- The College is in a holding position to implement Version 18 of Datatel. The tentative launch date is October 2007.

PLANNING & BUDGETING COMMITTEE

April 5, 2007

1:00 – 2:30pm

Location: Alondra Room

Facilitator: David Vakil & Arvid Spor

Note Taker: Ruth Sanchez

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

The Planning and Budgeting Committee serves as the steering committee for campus-wide planning and budgeting. The PBC assures that the planning and budgeting are interlinked and that the process is driven by the institutional priorities set forth in the Educational Master Plan and other plans adopted by the college. The PBC makes recommendations to the President on all planning and budgeting issues and reports all committee activities to the campus community.

Handouts:

1. PBC Subcommittees List
2. 2007-2008 Preliminary Budget
3. Maintenance Contracts (3/1/07)
4. Estimated FTES 2006-07 through 2009-10

The meeting was called to order at 1:07 p.m. by David Vakil.

Approval of Minutes: The minutes of March 1 were approved. There was discussion on the following:

1. Page 1 – (Preliminary Indicator Work) – Item #2 was reviewed.
2. Page 2 - #6 & #11 – Examples were requested.

Program Review Updates: Five program reviews in Academic Affairs (Astronomy, Math, Music Dance and ESL) are complete. Francisco Arce will distill the information and bring it to the April 5 meeting. Jeanie Nishime will bring her program review information at that time also.

Since the information won't be ready until the April meeting, the meetings on March 22 and March 29th are cancelled.

Since it is easier to identify student learning outcomes in the other two VP areas, Administrative Services will focus on three areas for its program review: 1) Flowcharting, 2) Indicators, 3) Customer Service Surveys. Indicators are currently being identified.

Technology Funds Report: Copies of a list of ITS Maintenance Contracts (hardware and software) dated 3/1/07 were shared with the group. Noted:

1. One goal is to move funding to the mandatory category.
2. Another goal is to come up with a replacement cycle that provides hardware and software (academic and administrative) appropriate to the task at hand and doesn't require employees to compete with each other for funds.
3. The proposal is to hold the line at 2,500 computers. On a five-year replacement cycle, 500 machines would be replaced each year. The cost would be $900,000 to $1 million.
4. A physical inventory of all computer labs on campus has been completed. There are 1,500 computers across campus.
5. Many computer labs are underutilized due to over specializing. Could some labs be consolidated? The lab situation is a bigger issue.

6. There are 900 – 1,000 staff computers.
7. Many institutions are implementing a four to five year replacement cycles. ECC should be safe with a five-year replacement cycle as long as it gets a five year warranty.
8. After five years, the computer would have to be surplused and kept out of the system.
9. In general, the oldest computers would be replaced first.
10. Some academic software had to be added to the list because it was added without going through ITS.
11. For programs that are growing, computers could be added to the existing installed base; however, replacement funds need to be added to the budget.
12. These numbers represent ECC only. No data is available from Compton. Compton has its own source of funding.
13. Many of Compton's buildings are not network ready; however, they are being upgraded as they are remodeled.
14. Vista make the entire installed base worldwide obsolete. ECC will need a whole new operating system before it can run Vista.
15. Expired contracts will be renewed.
16. Decision Centric will need to be added ($6,000 or $7,000 a year).
17. A total of $1.8 million will be needed, and that is in the Tentative Budget.

PBC Subcommittees: Copies of the PBC Subcommittees list were shared with the group. It was noted that the subcommittees were formed in an effort to understand all aspects of the budget in order to make informed decisions. The following changes were made to the subcommittee list:

1. Delete the Legal, Regulatory and Mandated Cost Reimbursements subcommittee.
2. Remove Ken Key from the Interfund Transfers, Matching Requirements subcommittee and add Dawn Reid to this committee.
3. Add Ken Key, Luis Mancía and Dave Westberg to the Instructional Component subcommittee.
4. Delete the question mark after Marcia Wade under Insurance and Benefits subcommittee.

It is hoped that the utilities subcommittee can get together before the April 5 meeting. David will send out an updated list of the subcommittees.

Ideas for subcommittees:

1. Utilities: What is the cost for the last 12 months; what are the projections for increases; what about solar and alternative energy; what about shutting down areas of the campus to save energy, etc?
2. Insurance: Confirm inflationary number and report back to PBC?
3. Instructional Component: Research the 80% rule.

Other suggestions:

1. Some of the technology planning and some of the facilities planning should tie into PBC because they impact budget and planning. New building will greatly increase energy and computer support needs. The college will be replacing small buildings that had no technology, and this is not plugged into the budget.
2. Form a Technology subcommittee to look into the ITS data and make recommendations. Someone from the PBC could sit in on existing committees like the Technology Committee. Noted: The PBC just makes funding recommendations.

Introductions: Thomas Connolly, Interim Director of Accounting (ECC), and Myeshia Armstrong, Accounting Manager, (Compton) were introduced.

Preliminary Budget Discussion: Input on the current version of the budget is needed. Page 25 of 130
There have been some changes since last time. Copies of the Estimated FTES 2006-07 through 2009-10 and the 2007-2008 Preliminary Budget were shared with the group. Noted:

1. Estimated Summer FTES might be closer to 1,800.
2. ECC can borrow from summer 2007 to increase the number of FTES reported for 2006-07 to 19,300 and should be eligible for 2007-08. Research is needed to determine when the college can next apply for stabilization funds if necessary.
3. The Preliminary Budget has been created for the worst case scenario.
4. The State is now funding ECC with an extra $1 million, but this has dropped due to lack of growth. The clerical error came next week. This statement we think is accurate.
5. With Compton, ECC is considered a multi-district campus, so it now has $7 million ($4 million for ECC and $3 million for Compton).
6. Lottery projections have been lowered.
7. State appropriations cover expenditures. This leaves only lottery money to fund discretionary accounts.
8. This budget shows $2 million less in Operational Expenditures (page 4). One change is software licensing. Another is the $900,000 for computer replacement.
9. There is a substantial reduction in GASB funds.
10. Salary increases are not built into this budget.
11. The $1 million deficit needs to be closed.
12. Page 3: Other Program Services (account #5910) is the $2,500,000 from Compton partnership that PBC made recommendations on.
13. Page 1, #3 (One Time Reappropriation/Trailer Bill): This money is one time only and will not be repeated next year. $960,000 will need to be contributed each year.
14. $950,000 appears in two places (dental and workers' comp). This solves some budget problems because it means the college now has that money.
15. Reduce interfund transfers by that amount.
16. COLA for 2007 – 08 is still an estimate.

Budget Assumptions: If the PBC endorses the Preliminary Budget assumptions, then the budget with assumptions will be forwarded to Cabinet. The assumptions just explain how the budget numbers were created. There were no objections to A – F of the assumptions. Suggestions:

1. Change (A) to FTES at 18,900.
2. Save (G) for later.
3. Talk about GASB at the next meeting.

There was a motion to accept assumption G as it is now. Three were in favor, three were against. Motion not passed.

Noted:

1. Even though the District has already made an offer, this goes forward to Cabinet with no salary increase.
2. The Preliminary Budget is flawed at this time because there is no salary increase in it; however, the budget is not finished yet.
3. The Preliminary Budget evolves into the Tentative Budget, which is due in May.

Meeting adjourned at 2:45 p.m.

Handouts: ECC 2007-08 Preliminary Budget
Determining Foundation Revenue – 2006-07 First Principal Apportionment

The meeting was called to order at 1:05 p.m.

Preliminary Budget Update:

1. J. Ely – previous budget projected at 18,900 FTES for 2007-08, but projection will be funded at what is reported at the end of this year (2006-07) – 19,300 FTES for 2007-08.
2. $900,000 was transferred from interfund transfer (7300 account) into GASB 45 – interfund transfer has totaled $2.5 million (see p. 21 of budget book) and the 06-07 contribution is $1.6 million.
3. Foundation-based revenue – decreased from $7 million to $5 million. J. Ely placed call to the state to find out reason for change. As a multi-college district, will receive $4 million for ECC and $1 million for Compton Center. Does not think reduction occurred statewide – formula has remained the same. This may be an error, and J. Ely will follow up.
4. “Multi-college” pertains to funding model only.
5. ECC and Compton Center FTES apportionment is separate for base funding. Foundation funding uses combined FTES.
6. Funding stream used for Compton Center (6,400 FTES based on 2004-05 enrollment) – 90%, 80%, 70% guaranteed for successive years. Currently at 2,600 FTES. Target growth is 4,480 FTES to match 70% funding.

Assumptions about salaries and GASB interfund transfer:

1. Original proposal – salaries would not be adjusted and stay at 0% increase for 2006-07. Last week’s vote was tied and the motion to endorse the tentative budget with this salary assumption failed.
2. Suggestion to do nothing about possible salary increases is not prudent and will leave the district open to a significant hole. Suggest some amount be set aside to avoid mid-year trauma.
3. Estimated utility increase it not a negotiated related issue. Inflationary increase in benefits is not a negotiated change in benefits.
4. Labor-related negotiation items should not be discussed by PBC – per advice from the district’s legal counsel as reported by J. Marsee.

5. PBC should recommend areas to be adjusted to compensate for any proposed salary increases for ongoing expenses. President will make recommendation if PBC cannot identify areas - cabinet will use discretionary funds.
6. Regarding a previous PBC recommendation, the committee did not look at one-time fund for ongoing costs. But looking to cover a one-time retroactive lump sum payment for a potential increase this fiscal year, which becomes an ongoing cost the following fiscal year. PBC would recommend ongoing funding source to cover ongoing increases.
7. Estimates are not negotiated; they are just estimated costs. Estimates for benefits are based on inflation – not related to changes in benefits.
8. $1 million funded by the partnership with the Compton Center was added into discretionary fund. (This assumes the Foundation funding calculation cited in #3 in “Preliminary Budget” above is actually an error, as expected.) This $1 million is classified as one-time funding.
9. Suggestion was made to move 2.5% into a reserve fund and identify the source of funds.
10. $2 million change from foundation revenue almost offset by $1.8 million in increased FTES.
11. Suggest pulling out $900,000 from GASB interfund transfer account to put into a reserve account. $1.8 million was set aside last year for GASB ($1.2 million of the $1.8 million was from one-time funds; the rest from recurring funds).
12. GASB $900,000 amount determined by expenses amortized over 30 years. Fund is not irrevocable until the district decides to do that. GASB board doesn’t require irrevocability until 2008.
13. 2006-07 budget will be amended one more time.
14. L. Widman proposed motion, seconded by D. Westberg:
 - Move $2 million from departmental operating budget to a contingency reserve account.
 - 3 In favor; 4 opposed. Motion failed.
15. D. Westberg proposed motion, seconded by L. Widman:
 - Take $900,000 from GASB and move it to a contingency account.
 - 3 In favor; 3 opposed; 1 abstained. Motion failed.
16. Need clarification for three items in Department Operations Expenditures: 5100-Contract for Personal Services; 5600-Contracts, Rentals and Repairs; and 5800-Other Services, Postage, Advertising.

The next meeting is scheduled on April 5, 2007.

Meeting adjourned at 2:20 p.m.

COLLEGE CURRICULUM COMMITTEE
DISTANCE EDUCATION GUIDELINES AND COURSE DEVELOPMENT PROCEDURES

Distance Education Guidelines

DEFINITION:

Distance education means instruction in which the instructor and student are separated by distance and interact through the assistance of communication technology.

COURSE QUALITY STANDARDS:

The same standards of course quality are applied to distance education courses as are applied to traditional classroom courses. Determinations and judgments about the quality and design of distance education courses shall be made with the full involvement of faculty.

INSTRUCTOR CONTACT:

All approved courses offered as distance education shall include regular effective contact between instructor and students through such avenues as group or individual meetings, orientation and review sessions, supplemental seminar or study sessions, field trips, library workshops, chat rooms, correspondence, and voice mail and e-mail messages.

FACULTY SELECTION AND COURSE SCHEDULING:

Instructors of sections delivered via distance education technology are to be selected by the same procedures used to determine all instructional assignments. Each instructor shall possess the minimum qualifications for the discipline assigned to the course.

Prior to being scheduled to teach a distance education course, faculty will be required to complete the Distance Education Training Program or demonstrate proficiency in the utilization of technology and techniques necessary for the particular course delivery method to the Distance Education Office.

Each semester, an instructor who has met the requirements for teaching a distance education course will submit a Distance Education Schedule Request to the division dean. The division dean will evaluate the request based on such factors as instructor load, department needs, and potential for enrollment. If the request is approved, it will be forwarded to the Director of Learning Resources. The Distance Education Office, in conjunction with the Director of Learning Resources, will prepare a distance education schedule based on such criteria as the courses submitted by the division deans, facilities, available technology, and license agreements.

CLASS SIZE:

Class size for telecourses is 125 students. Class size for distance education versions using formats such as online is the same as the traditional classroom course. If an adjustment is deemed necessary, then the academic dean must receive approval for the adjustment from the Vice President of Academic Affairs. For those courses which have no traditional course counterpart, standard college procedures will be used to determine class size.

Distance Education Course Development Procedures

COURSE DEVELOPMENT:

Any faculty member who wishes to propose a distance education version of an existing course or a new distance education course must follow standard division procedures for course development. In general, the proposal is first reviewed by the department and then reviewed and approved by the Division Curriculum Committee (DCC)*. The proposal is then reviewed and approved by the College Curriculum Committee (CCC) before being forwarded to the Board of Trustees for its approval.

If a DCC's membership does not include a representative currently teaching a distance education course, then a member of the Distance Education Advisory Committee (DEAC) must be involved in the review and approval of a distance education course.*

PROPOSAL FOR A DISTANCE EDUCATION VERSION OF AN EXISTING COURSE:

Before a distance education version can be developed, the course outline of record for the existing course must meet current Title 5 regulations and have been reviewed by the CCC within the past six years.

If an existing course has a distance education version and is undergoing course review, then the distance education version must be updated as part of the course review process. If an existing course does not have a distance education version and is undergoing course review, faculty are encouraged to consider the feasibility of establishing a distance education version.

A proposal for creating a distance education version of an existing course must include the following:

- Proposal for Course Revision – CCC Form 3, 4/2002
- Distance Education Addendum – CCC Form 11, 5/2005
- Course Outline of Record for existing course - CCC Form 1, 5/2006
- Content Review Documentation – CCC Forms A, B, C, D (as appropriate)
- Transfer Status Documentation (if appropriate)

PROPOSAL FOR A NEW DISTANCE EDUCATION COURSE:

A proposal for a new distance education course is identical to a proposal for a traditional new course and must include the following:

- Proposal for New Course – CCC Form 2, 4/2001
- Course Outline of Record – CCC Form 1, 5/2006
- Distance Education Addendum – CCC Form 11, 5/2005
- Content Review Documentation – CCC Forms A, B, C, D (as appropriate)
- Credit Mode Worksheets – CCC Forms 6, 7, 8 (as appropriate)
- Transfer Status Documentation (if appropriate)

Adopted by the College Curriculum Committee: March 27, 2007

Adopted by the Academic Senate:

Proposed changes to ECC Academic Senate Constitution Restructuring resulting from Partnership with Compton – Mar. 20, 2007

ARTICLE I Name and Definitions

Section 2. Definitions

The term “faculty” shall mean all personnel defined in the El Camino College Federation of Teachers Agreement and Compton Community College District Federation of Teachers Agreement

The term “division senator” is the individual who is elected by the full-time faculty of a division or educational center to represent such unit.

The term “educational center” shall mean a formally recognized El Camino College educational center as defined in Title 5.

The terms “faculty council” or “educational center council” shall mean a standing committee of the Senate located at each educational center. This Committee will represent the needs and concerns of faculty at its educational center and will select its membership in accordance with locally developed bylaws that shall be approved by the Senate.

ARTICLE III Senate Membership

Section 1. Senators

The composition of the Senate shall be one senator for each twelve Full-Time Equivalent Faculty (FTEF) members per division to be elected by full-time faculty. Each division shall have at least two senators. Adjunct faculty shall have two members-at-large from the Main Campus and up to one from each educational center on the Senate to be elected by the adjunct faculty of that center.

Divisions and educational centers having FTEF shall be entitled to senate members on the following basis:

1 through 24	-	two	(2)	members
25 through 36	-	three	(3)	members
37 through 48	-	four	(4)	members
49 or more	-	five	(5)	members

The division or educational center represented may exercise recall of a full-time senator at any time. See Bylaws Article III.

ARTICLE IV Officers

Section 1. Officers. The Senate shall elect from among its members:

- President;
- President-Elect, who may also hold another senate office, until beginning his or her term as president;
- Vice Presidents: Vice President of Educational Policies, Vice President of Legislative Action, Vice President of Finance and Special Projects, Vice President of Faculty Development, and Vice President of Educational Centers (an elected chair of an educational center council);
- Secretary;
- Other Officers, as deemed necessary.

Section 4. Duties of Officers and Other.

It shall be the duty of each officer to uphold the academic and professional matters as delineated in Title 5 of The California Code of Regulations.

BYLAWS OF THE EL CAMINO ACADEMIC SENATE COMPTON CENTER FACULTY COUNCIL

PREAMBLE

We, the faculty of the El Camino Compton Education Center, having been authorized by the El Camino College Academic Senate (Constitution of the El Camino Academic Senate Article 1.2) to establish a standing subcommittee to discuss issues of academic and professional concern as they pertain to the Center, do hereby establish, subject to the limitations set forth by the EL CAMINO COLLEGE ACADEMIC SENATE, these bylaws for a Faculty Council, effective after ratification by the El Camino Academic Senate and by two-thirds of the full-time Center faculty voting in said ratification referendum.

ARTICLE I: NAME

The name of this organization shall be the COMPTON CENTER FACULTY COUNCIL.

ARTICLE II: PURPOSE AND MISSION

It is the primary purpose of the Compton Center Faculty Council to serve as the principal voice for faculty participation in the academic and professional operation of the Center and , as a standing committee of the El Camino Academic Senate, to communicate concerns to the full Senate for its due consideration and action, as deemed appropriate. The Council remains a constituent committee of the El Camino Academic Senate and shall not affiliate with any professional association, organization or group, except as authorized by the El Camino Senate.

ARTICLE III: EXPRESS DUTIES

It is hereby reaffirmed that the principal duties of the Compton Center Faculty Council are:

- 1) To establish and maintain a consistent communication process, both formal and informal, between itself, as the voice of faculty, and the Compton Center Administration Such communication is crucial, for an informed faculty is a participatory faculty.

- 2) To accept the responsibility for equal partnership in the collegial operation of the Center particularly in matters relating to academic issues and faculty professionalism.
- 3) To make timely, compelling recommendations to the Administration of the Center, regarding academic growth, development, and improvement of the Center.
- 4) To regularly inform Compton Center faculty on all matters of relevance.
- 5) To act as campus lobbyist, advocate, and articulator of Compton Center faculty views and interests, with the Administration and the full El Camino Academic Senate .
- 6) To raise faculty integrity, professionalism, and respectability, and to monitor faculty adherence to those standards and defend the faculty against any who seek to weaken those standards.
- 7) To adhere to a proactive, progressive, and winning stance in all matters that pertain to the growth and development of the Compton Center.
- 8) To communicate the concerns of Center faculty to the El Camino Academic Senate and to select voting representatives to serve on the Senate as set forth in the Senate's bylaws, in order to further the growth, development, and improvement of the El Camino College District and its constituent center(s).

ARTICLE IV: COMPOSITION

SECTION 1. ELECTORATE

- a. The full-time Electorate (hereinafter referred to as the full-time faculty) shall be limited to those non-management certificated persons who are employed on at least a ten-month contract (Code, 53200(a) to work at the Compton Center under the auspices of the El Camino College District. Board Policy 4040

Library Services

It is the policy of El Camino College to maintain library services that are an integral part of the educational program. The district will provide the means to assure the planned and systematic acquisition and maintenance of library materials, resulting in a well-balanced collection having the depth, scope, and currency necessary to meet the needs of the El Camino College community.

The librarians, working in collaboration with other faculty, shall have primary responsibility for the identification, selection, coordination and provision of academic resources and services that meet the information needs of the El Camino College community. Donated materials will be evaluated using the same criteria as other materials.

Library resources shall be accessible to all users. Students and faculty involved in distance education or off-campus programs shall have electronic access to sufficient library resources to ensure successful completion of their academic coursework. The libraries shall be open during all terms in which classes are offered. Libraries shall operate under the supervision of library faculty during all open hours.

The District supports the American Library Association's Bill of Rights that affirms both library users' right to read what they choose and the library's responsibility to provide books and materials presenting a variety of points of view

Procedures for implementing the policy will be developed in collegial consultation with the Academic Senate, as defined in CCR § 53200.

Administrative Procedures 4040

Library Services

The following guidelines will be used in implementing the Library Policy.

- Prioritization

1. To provide materials that meet direct curricular needs in the courses of study
2. To include standard reference works in the major fields of knowledge
3. To provide materials of current interest and concern
4. To provide a well-rounded reading experience.

Materials will be purchased that are appropriate to the diversity of backgrounds and skills in the student body and works written by authors from a wide variety of backgrounds and perspectives.

- Selection Criteria

When selecting materials, the library considers the following:

1. Meeting the needs of the students and faculty
2. Timeliness
3. Relevance and authority
4. Overall balance of the collection

Faculty members are encouraged to recommend titles in their areas of expertise; however librarians have the final responsibility for maintaining a well-balanced materials collection. Limitations will be applied as needed.

Donations

The same criteria will be utilized when adding donations to the collection as when selecting new titles. If the donor places special conditions on the donation (e.g., that the materials must be added to the collection) the donation will not be accepted. All donations will be acknowledged by the College Foundation.

Special Collections

Special browsing collections of books, placed in a separate location in the library, will be established only when there is a real and observable benefit to the students. Under no circumstances will a new special collection be established when the books under consideration are already placed together by subject on the shelves under the Library of Congress classification system.

Government Publications

The library is not a designated government depository library; therefore, government documents will be cataloged and added to the book collection.

Discarding

Factors that will be considered when withdrawing materials are the physical condition, the number of duplicate copies, contemporary relevance, and previous usage.

Replacements

Missing, lost, or damaged materials that are paid for will not necessarily be replaced.

Controversial Materials.

Library materials are selected within the framework of the American Library Association's "Freedom to Read Statement" and "The Library Bill of Rights" documents which affirm both library users' right to read what they choose and the library's responsibility to "provide books and materials presenting all points of view concerning the problems and issues of our times."

The library does not promote particular beliefs, nor is the selection of any item meant to indicate endorsement of that item's viewpoint. The library recognizes that many items are controversial and may offend some users. However, selections are not made on the basis of anticipated approval or disapproval, but solely on the merits of the work in relation to building the collection and serving the interests of the El Camino College community.

Materials will not be marked or identified to show approval or disapproval of the contents, and no catalogued material or other item will be sequestered, except for the purpose of protecting it from injury or theft.

If library materials are questioned, the concern must be addressed in writing to the Director of Learning Resources, signed by the person raising the question, and must indicate specific objections. The Director and the college librarians will review the matter. The Director will respond in writing and forward copies of the letters to the Vice President of Academic Affairs. The questioner may accept the review or present an appeal to the College President and, if not satisfied, to the Board of Trustees.

1.0 ACADEMIC SENATE

1.01 S07 Establishment of New Local and District Senates
Jane Patton, Mission College, Executive Committee

Whereas, Many colleges are in the process of seeking accreditation for academic centers and the accreditation process requires that a local academic senate be formed before accreditation can be granted;

Whereas, Multi-college districts are also considering how best to form district academic senates and often seek advice about how best to work together to form local district senates; and

Whereas, New colleges and academic centers will need to establish participatory governance policies;

Resolved, That the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges conduct research and investigate good practices for local colleges interested in forming new local and/or district academic senates;

Resolved, That the Academic Senate for California Community College create and distribute materials to faculty at colleges that are developing new colleges and academic centers that will aid them in this process; and

Resolved, That the Academic Senate for California Community College consider joining with other statewide faculty and administrator organizations to explore developing instructions to guide local senates in establishing effective participatory governance policies at new colleges and academic centers.

1.02 S07 Ensuring Participatory Governance
Michelle Pilati, Rio Hondo College, Executive Committee

Whereas, California's AB1725 (1988) recognized the role of local academic senates to make policy development and implementation recommendations to local governing boards on all academic and professional matters and the Legislature adopted §§70901 of the Education Code and the Board of Governors adopted §§ 53200-53203 of Title 5 to strengthen the role of local academic senates in the governance of colleges and districts by requiring local governing boards to "consult collegially" with academic senates;

Whereas, Local academic senates need knowledge and opportunities to develop the skills necessary to participate effectively in local governance;

Whereas, Faculty, administrators, local governing boards, and students all have a common goal of providing students with opportunities for achieving success in whatever academic goals students pursue in the California community colleges; and

Whereas, Statewide collaborations such as the System Advisory Committee on Curriculum have demonstrated the effectiveness of a true collaborative relationship among faculty, administrators, and the System Office and suggested, by extension, the benefits of participatory governance;

Resolved, That the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges find additional ways to provide guidance to local senate leaders to ensure that they have the knowledge they need to participate in governance effectively at the local level; and

Resolved, That the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges work with the groups representing the Chief Instructional Officers, Chief Student Services Officers and the College Presidents to develop a proactive approach to participatory governance, such as providing training designed to highlight the benefits of engaging in collegial consultation and identifying best practices that facilitate effective participatory governance at the local level.

1.03 S07 Appointment of Faculty Representatives
Michelle Pilati, Rio Hondo College, Executive Committee

Whereas, The mission statement for the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges states, “The Academic Senate for California Community Colleges fosters the effective participation by community college faculty in all statewide and local academic and professional matters; develops, promotes, and acts upon policies responding to statewide concerns; and serves as the official voice of the faculty of California Community Colleges in academic and professional matters”;

Whereas, Faculty appointed to statewide committees, commissions, and consultation groups are representing the faculty as a whole and need to be cognizant of positions taken by the Academic Senate when dealing with the academic and professional matters that are the purview of the Senate;

Whereas, The Academic Senate, as the voice representing the faculty on all California community colleges intentionally and specifically seeks out feedback from faculty through its deliberative process at plenary sessions, area meetings, through surveys, and other venues and thus is truly representative of faculty views; and

Whereas, Individual faculty, other systems of higher education, and other statewide entities may not recognize the need for appointments to be made by the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges;

Resolved, That the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges work to educate local senates, all other appropriate groups/organizations, and individuals about its role in appointing faculty as representatives to statewide committees that seek a faculty representative in order to ensure that such representatives are familiar with the positions adopted by the Academic Senate as the representative body for the faculty regarding academic and professional matters.

1.04 S07 Process for Recommending Changes to Title 5 Regulations
Beth Smith, Grossmont College

Whereas, Recommending changes to Title 5 Regulations is significant and affects all colleges within the State; and

Whereas, Local senates need time to fully absorb the impact of recommended changes to programs, faculty, and students;

Resolved, That the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges develop a process to be adopted at a future plenary session that details a procedure for review and recommendation of proposed changes to Title 5 regulations.

Note: Nonurgent resolution from Fall 2006.

1.05 S07 Education Opportunity to Improve Effective Governance
Beth Smith, Grossmont College, Area D

Whereas, The twentieth anniversary of AB 1725 provides the opportunity for governance at colleges and districts to begin a new era of collegial consultation;

Whereas, Many universities in California and other organizations provide instruction and professional development for administrators; and

Whereas, More of the administrators being hired in California community colleges hail from outside the state, come from private industry or other leadership posts and are not sufficiently educated in the spirit of AB 1725 and collegial consultation;

Resolved, That the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges research the possibility of making presentations at professional development leadership seminars and at universities; and

Resolved, The Academic Senate for California Community Colleges expand its long-standing practice of providing workshops, in accord with Community College League of California, for any college or district interested in furthering the ability of its faculty, administrators, staff and students to participate effectively in governance.

2.0 ACCREDITATION

2.01 S07 Faculty on Accreditation Teams
Larry Steuben, Columbia College, Area A

Whereas, The 2002 Accrediting Commission of Community and Junior Colleges (ACCJC) Accreditation Standards provide a robust peer review process that benefits from input from all institutional constituencies; and

Whereas, Current ACCJC accreditation teams can benefit from faculty expertise in evaluating and making recommendations addressing the accreditation standards, particularly those related to student learning outcomes, which can contribute to productive peer review processes;

Resolved, That the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges request of and work with the ACCJC to evaluate accreditation team training and college visitation schedules to consider faculty assignments and accommodate classroom obligations;

Resolved, That the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges request of and work with the ACCJC to explore training modes such as interactive online training, webinars, CCCConfer and other distance options to accommodate accreditation team training; and

Resolved, That the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges suggest to the ACCJC a goal of a minimum of two faculty participants on each visiting team to further enrich the review of accreditation standards and recommendations.

3.0 EQUITY AND DIVERSITY

3.01 S07 Honors Programs and Student Equity

Lesley Kawaguchi, Santa Monica College, Executive Committee

Whereas, A survey of honors programs in the California community colleges found that most of the respondents did not keep student equity or transfer data and the data that was submitted suggests that students who participate in honors programs may not reflect the diversity of California community college students as a whole; and

Whereas, The Academic Senate for California Community Colleges has long supported student equity as a part of student success;

Resolved, That the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges encourage local senates to advocate for the maintenance of both student equity and transfer data on their student participants in honors programs; and

Resolved, That the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges urge local senates to work with administrators and faculty who oversee these programs to find ways to encourage all qualified students to participate in their programs; and disseminate information on best practices regarding honors programs.

3.02 S07 Using Data to Promote Equity and Diversity at the Program Level Wheeler North, San Diego Miramar College, Executive Committee

Whereas, Many colleges focus their equity and diversity efforts at the institutional level;

Whereas, Current institutional research and information technologies provide faculty and staff access to detailed data at the program and course level for use in improving retention and success rates and addressing equity and diversity barriers; and

Whereas, Many faculty may find it difficult to use the data effectively in their equity and diversity decisions at the course, program, and curricular levels if they do not know how to interpret the data properly;

Resolved, That the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges research ways to help local faculty make more purposeful use of program-level student equity data on their campuses and draft a paper and/or conduct a breakout that presents the results of this research and suggests best practices for the use of this data when local colleges develop their equity and diversity plans.

3.03 S07 Grading, Student Equity, and Developing Senate Guidelines
Sterling Roulette, Mt. San Jacinto College, Area D

Whereas, The disparity between grade distribution for students taking the same course with different instructors, formats and lengths within the same department/program/college raises questions of academic rigor and common standards;

Whereas, Students can now access the grade distributions of faculty at a given institution and may begin to make course selections based on the grade distribution of individual faculty;

Whereas, This practice of selecting a course section based on the grade distributions of an individual faculty member, could "incentivize" some faculty to change their grading standards in order to ensure their courses "make" and thus exacerbating the problem of grade inflation and/or disparity; and

Whereas, The Academic Senate for California Community Colleges, while recognizing the importance of academic freedom in the primacy of faculty to assign grades, also supports meaningful dialog among faculty about grading standards and rigor;

Resolved, That the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges research the prevalence of grade inflation within the California Community College System and the impact, if any, of the availability of faculty grade distributions on grade inflation;

Resolved, That the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges develop a white paper to empower local academic senates seeking to initiate local campus discussions on the topics of grade inflation and academic rigor; and

Resolved, That the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges use its appropriate institutes and plenary sessions to share the results of its research on grade inflation.

3.04 S07 African American Student Success
John Gamber, American River College, Area A

Whereas, Low success rates in course completion, persistence and retention by African American students are clearly documented by the Datamart system maintained by the System Office;

Whereas, Several papers and articles on student success and basic skills also document that a disproportionate number of African American students are failing to meet the minimum level for academic success;

Whereas, Successful programs, such as Puente, IDILE, and Mathematics, Engineering, Science Achievement (MESA) program, have been demonstrated to improve success rates and transfer rates for students of color; and

Whereas, Other successful programs focused on African American students can serve as a model for the development of programs that can also improve success rates for African American students;

Resolved, That the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges investigate successful statewide and national models designed to encourage the persistence and retention of African American and other underrepresented students including both instructional and student services components;

Resolved, That the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges share the results of this investigation at a future plenary session.

5.0 BUDGET AND FINANCE

5.01 S07 Funding for Student Learning Outcomes Assessment Training and Development Wheeler North, San Diego Miramar College, Executive Committee

Whereas, Student Learning Outcomes are seen by many as fundamental to developing quality curriculum that better serves students and also meets the Accrediting Commission for Community and Junior Colleges (ACCJC) Accreditation Standards; and

Whereas, At the January 2007 Academic Senate for California Community Colleges Accreditation Institute, Chancellor Drummond addressed the participants and indicated his plan to request additional funding to support the development and assessment of Student Learning Outcomes;

Resolved, That the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges work with the System Office to identify existing and new funding and secure such funding for the training in and development of Student Learning Outcomes assessment, both systemwide and for local initiatives.
