

PROGRAM LEVEL STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

Art:

- After completing an Associate of Arts Degree, a certificate, or transfer curriculum in art, students will be able to comprehend and discuss art works in terms of form, medium, style, and content.
- After completing an Associate of Arts Degree, a certificate, or transfer curriculum in art, students will be able to create art works in terms of form, medium, style, and content.
- After completing an Associate of Arts Degree or transfer curriculum in art, students will be able to demonstrate comprehension of the historical, geographical, and chronological context of art.

Communication Studies:

- Upon successful completion of the courses in this discipline, the student will have acquired the following knowledge and skills:
- Communicate with diverse audiences in multiple contexts to meet the goals of the intended communication.
- Describe and analyze the symbolic nature of communication and how it creates individual, group, and cultural reality.
- Identify, evaluate, and utilize evidence to support claims used in presentations and arguments.
- Demonstrate through performance and analysis the importance of both verbal and nonverbal communication.

Dance:

- Students will identify, execute and understand exercises specific to supplemental dance training.
- Students will process a mastery of the terminology, technical skills and the performance artistry of the specific theatrical dance styles.
- Students will process a mastery of the terminology, technical skills and the performance artistry of the specific theatrical dance styles.

Film:

- Students concentrating in filmmaking will acquire basic skills needed to operate introductory film/video production equipment.
- Students concentrating in film studies will learn historical, cultural, and aesthetic factors that led to rise of the Hollywood and how its model of film production became the dominant form practiced by popular cinemas worldwide.

EL CAMINO COLLEGE

FINE ARTS DIVISION

Music:

- Critical Analysis: After completing coursework to fulfill an Associate of Arts degree, or to transfer, the student should be able to critique a piece of music based on elements of music, including form, style, rhythm, harmony, melody, timbre, texture and dynamics

Photo:

- Upon successful completion of coursework to complete an A.S. degree, a program certificate, or to transfer, students in the Photography Department should be able to visualize and produce fine art and commercial photographs that represent fully-developed concepts of form, medium and content.
- Upon successful completion of coursework to complete an A.S. degree, a program certificate, or to transfer, students in the Photography Department should be able to critique and discuss film and digital photographic images that represent fully-developed concepts of form, medium and content.

Theatre:

- Students will be able to analyze and critique theatre styles of theatrical performance within a cultural, relevant and historical context.
- Students will possess a mastery of the terminology, technical skill, and the performance artistry of the specific theatrical style.