

USEFUL WEB SITES

www.assist.org Transfer information that shows how course credits earned at one California public college or university can be applied when transferred to another. ASSIST is the official repository of articulation for California's public colleges and universities and provides the most accurate and up-to-date information about student transfer in California.

www.universityofcalifornia.edu Find out more about the University of California, individual campuses, admission information, and apply for admission online.

www.honorstcc.org Information about Honors Transfer Council of California, the organization that governs community college honors programs.

www.csumentor.org CSUMentor is an online resource designed to help students learn about the CSU system, select a CSU campus to attend, plan to finance higher education, and apply for admission.

www.californiacolleges.edu A web site for students to explore college options (admissions information, financial aid, career) in quick easy steps.

www.usc.edu Find out information about the University of Southern California, admissions information, academic programs, and student life.

www.aiccu.edu Provides information about California's 77 independent/private universities.

www.uctransfer.org This web site explains what you'll need to do to transfer to a UC and how you can make smart course choices that will maximize your chances of being admitted to UC.

www.collegesource.org A virtual library for over 30,000 college catalogs.

www.fastweb.com The most complete source of local scholarships and college-specific scholarships. Search for internships in your field and find part-time job openings near your home or school. Learn tips for success in your career.

www.fafsa.ed.gov Free Application for Federal Student Aid. Fill out the application, answering questions about yourself, your school plans, and your financial situation.

www.honorstcc.org The Honors Transfer Council of California creates transfer agreements with various universities (see details here) and organizes the Student Research Conference each spring.

Note: In addition to the general information web sites listed above, we encourage you to become very familiar with the web sites of specific universities which interest you. Many universities offer benefits to community college honors students (see the chart on page 3), including scholarships, and some of these have deadlines earlier than might be expected.

Every semester the Transfer Center takes many free bus tours to university campuses. It is strongly recommended that you visit the campuses that might interest you before making a commitment to attending that university.