

Long Beach Unified School District
HEAD START PROGRAM

Is Accepting Applications for the Position of

HEAD START EDUCATION SPECIALIST
(193-Day Traditional) – Full-time

Current Salary: $42,364 - $53,267

Long Beach Unified School District is the third largest district in the State of California, serving a diverse student population. The Head Start/Early Head Start program is currently funded to serve 2,173 children and families in 23 centers located throughout the District.

LBUSD Head Start Program is accepting applications for the position of Head Start Education Specialist. This management-level position is responsible for supervising and evaluating teaching staff and assisting with the overall operations of approximately six Head Start centers. The position also provides training and technical assistance on best practices for early childhood education.

This position is responsible for providing professional development, developing ideas for classroom activities, reviewing lesson plans, anecdotal records and children's assessments and monitoring curriculum implementation and ongoing monitoring and supervision of instructional staff.

Requirements:

- Hold a BA or MA degree in child development or related field
- Hold or be eligible for the California Child Development Program Director Permit or
- Hold a California Teaching Credential for young children
- Have six units in Administration plus two units in Adult Supervision

Experience:

Must have experience as a site supervisor in a Head Start or similar child development program. Any other combination of education or experience that demonstrates an applicant is likely to possess the required skills, knowledge and abilities may be considered.