Dear alumni and friends of El Camino College,

El Camino College is many things to many people. For some, it is a gateway to higher education, a place to complete half of a bachelor's degree in an academically solid setting--at a price that qualifies as one of the best bargains anywhere. For others, it is the gateway to career advancement or a new career, perhaps through a degree or certificate program. And still others take advantage of the opportunities for lifelong learning offered at El Camino, taking classes semester after semester for personal enrichment.

For me, El Camino provided opportunities that otherwise would have been out of reach. I arrived at ECC as a 17-year-old freshman and completed an A.A. two years later. I was actually more than halfway through college when I transferred with 70 units out of 124 required for a B.A. My ECC course work left me so well prepared that it was easy to finish up in two more years. Soon I also had a master's degree, a Ph.D., a J.D., and a career as a university professor. Now I'm proud to be back where I started. El Camino means a lot to me.

Your story may be different than mine, but if you have been touched by ECC, please consider joining the Alumni Association. We offer many opportunities for service to the campus and community. We host social gatherings and offer our members discounts on campus events in sports and the performing arts. We also have chapters organized by fields of study, giving members opportunities to re-connect with friends and meet others in their fields.

To join the Alumni Association, fill out the attached membership application, letting us know where you are now and what you've been doing. Be sure to check the appropriate box if it's okay to include a news item about you on the ECC Alumni Association website.

Sincerely,

Wayne Overbeck
2005 President
El Camino College Alumni Association

Please take a moment to tell us what you would like to see in this new organization. Include your ideas about how we can best meet your needs and the needs of the thousands of alumni who live and work in our communities.

Comments:

Help us reach more of our alumni - If you know of an El Camino College alumni, please send us their name and address and we will send them an information packet inviting them to join the alumni association. (or if you prefer, pass along our address and e-mail information to them so they can request a membership application.)
