El Camino College invites applications for

Dean, Behavioral and Social Sciences

THE POSITION

Under the direction of the Vice President, Academic Affairs and in a multicultural diverse environment, the dean of the Behavioral and Social Sciences Division is responsible for the year-round administration, supervision, operation, and development of the division’s day, evening and online programs. The dean also provides leadership for faculty and staff in offering quality educational services and supervises and evaluates the performance of assigned personnel.

El Camino College enrolls approximately 25,000 students each semester, about 11,000 of whom take classes in the Behavioral and Social Sciences disciplines of American studies, anthropology, early childhood education, economics, education, ethnic studies, history, human development, philosophy, political science, psychology, sociology, and women’s studies. The dean also oversees the ECC Study Abroad program, which recruits and supervises at least one program each year.
ABOUT EL CAMINO COLLEGE

El Camino College is situated on a beautiful and spacious 126-acre campus near Torrance, California. Located in Los Angeles County, just minutes from South Bay beaches, El Camino College is surrounded by high-tech industries including aerospace, logistics, multimedia and service corporations.

El Camino College is a vibrant learning community that has served the cities of El Segundo, Hawthorne, Hermosa Beach, Inglewood, Lawndale, Lennox, Manhattan Beach, Redondo Beach, and Torrance since 1947.

As a comprehensive two-year college, El Camino College serves approximately 25,000 students each semester. Students have access to excellent academic offerings, career and technical education programs, exceptional student services, new and technologically advanced classrooms, as well as tutoring and mentoring programs.

El Camino College provides many opportunities for students to succeed. Through the Honors Transfer Program, El Camino College transfers hundreds of students each year to four-year universities around the country. Top transfer institutions include UCLA, USC and UC Berkeley. El Camino College is regularly among the top three community colleges in Southern California for students admitted to UCLA via the Transfer Alliance Program. Students are also supported by an extensive scholarship program, with approximately $800,000 awarded annually.

With the passage of general obligation bond measures in 2002 and 2012, the District has undergone a substantial transformation campuswide. Over the next 10 years, capital construction projects, as well as new initiatives to support student success, will strengthen El Camino College as a premier institution for teaching and learning.

COMPENSATION AND BENEFIT HIGHLIGHTS

Health, Life, Dental and Vision Insurance
The College provides a diversified insured benefit program for all full-time employees including medical, dental, vision and life insurance. Dependent medical, dental and vision insurance is available toward which both the College and the employee contribute.

Sick Leave and Disability
Paid sick leave is granted equal to one day for each month of service. Sick leave may be accumulated indefinitely. Rather than State Disability Insurance, limited sick leave benefits are available for days beyond the earned sick leave days and are paid at fifty percent.

Retirement
Full-time employees contribute a percentage of their regular salary to either the State Teachers Retirement System (STRS) or to the Public Employees Retirement System (PERS) and Social Security.

The El Camino Community College District is committed to providing equal opportunity in which no person is subjected to discrimination on the basis of national origin, religion, age, sex (including sexual harassment), race, color, gender, physical or mental disability, or retaliation.
