El Camino College to Present Spring Chamber Music Recital

Chamber music at its best will fill the El Camino College Campus Theatre at 8 p.m. April 1, featuring ECC faculty members Dane Teter, Jon Minei and Kenner Bailey.

The concert of chamber music for guitar and woodwinds will include solo works from each artist, as well as movements from Claude Bolling's "Picnic Suite," Brett Pierce's "Shades of Ebony," and Ibert's "Histoires."

Teter is director of instrumental music at El Camino College, where he conducts the Symphony Orchestra and the Concert Band. He received his doctorate in music education from USC. A veteran conductor, Teter has worked with numerous bands, orchestras, and choirs from all over the Western United States. He frequently performs in El Camino College Artist-in-Residence recitals with his fellow faculty members and local musicians.

Associate music professor Jon Minei is an alumnus of El Camino College. He transferred to USC, where he earned a bachelor's degree in guitar and lute performance. He also has a master's degree from USC in classical guitar performance. Jon has performed solo and with ensembles, both locally and internationally.

Bailey is an accomplished pianist and organist who performs regularly throughout Southern California and beyond, including genres from classical to Broadway, as well as most forms of commercial music. He is also the pianist/organist at Hope United Methodist Church and former piano instructor at the South Bay Conservatory. He joined ECC Professor Joanna Nacheff and her Ambassadors of Harmony to play piano in Carnegie Hall.

Tickets for this chamber music recital are $15 and may be purchased online at centerforthearts.org, by phone at 310-329-5345 or toll-free at 800-832-ARTS. The Ticket Office is open Monday through Friday 10 a.m.-6 p.m. Campus Parking is $3. The El Camino College Campus Theater is located at 16007 Crenshaw Boulevard, Torrance.
