El Camino College Theatre Department Presents “Into the Woods” Fairy tales get a modern twist in this epic musical saga

El Camino College Theatre Department students will bring favorite fairy tales to life in a can't-miss production of “Into the Woods.” The show opens at 8 p.m. April 16 in the Campus Theatre, and continues with performances at 3 p.m. April 17, 8 p.m. April 22- April 23, 3 p.m. April 24, 8 p.m. April 29-30, with a final performance at 3 p.m. on May 1.

“Into the Woods” presents a modern twist on the beloved Brothers Grimm fairy tales in a musical format that follows the classic tales of Cinderella, Little Red Riding Hood, Jack and the Beanstalk, and Rapunzel. They are all tied together by an original story involving a baker and his wife, their wish to begin a family and their interaction with the witch who has put a curse on them.

The Tony Award-winning music and lyrics by Stephen Sondheim and book by James Lapine draw audiences into the intertwining plot that connects all the characters. A film adaption directed by Rob Marshall was equally successful, winning both Academy Award and Golden Globe nominations.

Tickets for this performance are $25 for adults and $18 for children ages 5-12. Children under 5 years of age will not be admitted to ECC Theatre performances.
