El Camino College Blood Drive Exceeds Goal

El Camino College students, faculty and staff exceeded all goals and donated 353 units of blood during its recent blood drive with the American Red Cross, making it the college's most successful blood drive in recent years.

The college's Inter-Club Council sponsored this twice-per-year event. Representatives from the American Red Cross estimated that the current donation from the El Camino College community can potentially save the lives of up to 1,059 patients.

Anyone who is 17 or older, weighs more than 110 pounds, and whose health permits, can give blood. The next El Camino College blood drive is set for March 20, 21 and 22, 2007.
