El Camino College to Sponsor Internship Fair

El Camino College's office of Career Placement Services will sponsor an Employer Recruitment & Internship Fair from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Nov. 29 on the campus library lawn, 16007 Crenshaw Boulevard, near Torrance.

A variety of South Bay employers will be represented at the fair, including Los Angeles Airport Police, Peet's Coffee & Tea, and U.S. Customs and Border Protection.

In addition, internship opportunities will be available from the following organizations: Cambrian Homecare (Eldercare), Community Development Commission (Housing & Economic Development), GearUP / TEP (Gaining Early Awareness and Readiness for Undergraduate Programs), Last Chance for Animals (Animal Protection), Los Angeles Conservation Corps (Sea Lab), and Peace Games (After School Educational Program).

Internships are a great way for students to gain experience in their major or field of study. Students will also have the opportunity to network with potential employers at the event.

For more information, call the El Camino College Career Placement Services at 310-660-3449.
