

N E W S

Public Relations and Marketing Department | 16007 Crenshaw Blvd., Torrance, CA 90506

Telephone: (310) 660-3406 | FAX: (310) 660-3946 | Contact: Ann M. Garten

For Immediate Release

March 10, 2006

El Camino College Student Athletes Earn Football Scholarships

El Camino College saw numerous student-athletes receive football scholarships during the 2005-06 academic year to transfer to four-year colleges and universities. The college's football program put forth an outstanding effort this year, finishing its first undefeated season in 16 years and then went on to a remarkable 57-22 win over Riverside in the National Bowl.

The following All-American players secured scholarships: Marcel Reece, of Hesperia High School, University of Washington; Mark Gray, of Loyola High School, University of California; Nate Ness, of Gardena High School, University of Arizona; Moses Manu, of Morningside High School, Kansas State; Marvin Arnold, Carson High School, Colorado State University; Devin Adair, Mira Costa High School, Tulsa University; and Brian Flowers, Inglewood High School, Idaho State University.

Several more students also secured football scholarships, including: Eric Faatagi, of Dorsey High School, University of Colorado; AJ Grigsby, of Paramount High School, University of Kentucky; Kurtis Overseen, Daniel Murphy High School, Marshall University; Ira Guilford, of New Jersey, Temple University; Jeff Eugene, of Miami, Florida International University; Troy Crawford, Long Beach Poly High School, Weber State University; Jake Accetta, San Pedro High School, Humboldt State; Joel Cowert, Lakewood High School, St. Mary's – Kansas; Paul Mccalope, Inglewood High School, St. Mary's – Kansas; Laferrall Payne, Gardena High School; Henderson State University; David Lautalo, of Hawaii, Henderson State University; Rico Taylor, of Detroit, Texas A & M University; and Claven Charles; of Miami, Texas A & M University.

In addition, Ira Guilford is the recipient of the 3C4A academic award which he will receive at the upcoming COA convention.

###