

NEWS

El Camino College | Public Relations & Marketing Department
16007 Crenshaw Blvd., Torrance, CA 90506
Telephone: (310) 660-3406 | FAX: (310) 660-3946 | Contact: Ann M. Garten

For Immediate Release

November 18, 2006

South Bay Youth Orchestra to Perform at El Camino College

The South Bay Youth Orchestra will present their 11th Annual "Honda Winter Classic Concert" at 7 p.m. Dec. 2 in the El Camino College Marsee Auditorium, 16007 Crenshaw Boulevard, near Torrance.

The concert, "The Sounds of Winter," features the SBYO Chamber Orchestra with special guest artists Julie Matsuda, violin; Stacy Kong, flute; Rich Bosanko, trumpet; Chika Emori, violin; Ashley Cabico, bassoon; Susan Asbjornson, soprano; and local band The Surplustronics.

The music of Mozart, Haydn, Dukas, Doyle, and Tellier will be featured, as well as new works by El Camino College composers Lyle Greenlund & Travis Melvin. Of course, plenty of holiday favorites will also be played.

Tickets cost $8 and all proceeds will benefit the South Bay Youth Orchestra Scholarship Fund. Parking is free for this event. SBYO performances are possible through the generous support of American Honda and El Camino College.

The South Bay Youth Orchestra is directed by Bruce Tellier, with Aaron Rose and Christopher Lee as assistant directors. The Chamber Orchestra is directed by William E. Doyle. The South Bay Youth Orchestra is open to all middle, junior and senior high school students who play string, woodwind, brass, and percussion instruments. College credit is available and there is no tuition for any student who has been a California resident for at least one year. Auditions are held each fall.

For more information, contact the SBYO at El Camino College, 310-660-3717, Ext. 2.

###