El Camino College Linebacker Named MVP

El Camino College football standout Vuna Tuihalamaka was recently named the Mission Conference Most Valuable Player for October by the Community College League of California Commission on Athletics.

The sophomore linebacker is a two-year starter for El Camino College, who posted 37 tackles—15 of which were solo—3 tackles for loss, forced a fumble and blocked a punt to help the Warriors to a perfect 3-0 record during October. A team captain, Tuihalamaka leads El Camino College in nearly every defensive statistical category.

The 6-foot-tall, 225-pound linebacker from Hawthorne High School received conference honors for Week 7 when he posted 14 tackles and blocked a punt; he also was recognized for his work in Week 8 when he had a season-high 15 tackles in a win over Cerritos College.

The Community College League of California Commission on Athletics (COA) is a non-profit organization that administers the athletic activities of the nearly 25,000 student athletes at California's community colleges.
