El Camino College to Sponsor Women's History Month Events

El Camino College will sponsor several Women's History Month events throughout March, including a luncheon with speaker Betty Brooks, an expert in feminist history, scheduled from 12:30 to 2 p.m. March 10, in the college's East Dining Room, 16007 Crenshaw Boulevard, near Torrance.

The Second Annual Women's Health Fair is next on the calendar, with different stations focusing on different topics of women's health such as nutrition, exercise, pregnancy, and safety. "Beauty In, Beauty Out: Building Strong Minds and Strong Bodies" is the title of this health fair and is set from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. March 16 in the Student Activities Center. Free manicures, massages, and makeup demonstrations will also be available.

Speaker and historian Betsy Perry will give a lecture, "Muslim Women and the Making of a Spanish Nation" from 1 to 2 p.m. March 22 in the business building. Perry is a distinguished historian of Early Modern Spain and is the author of numerous articles and books. Her most recent book is The Handless Maiden: Moriscos and the Politics of Religion in Early Modern Spain.

The Women's History Month Committee will also sponsor the 10th Annual Women's Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony from 1 to 2 p.m. March 23 in the East Dining Room, honoring women from both El Camino College and the community for their leadership and contributions to society.

The activities wrap up with the Women in Industry and Technology Fair, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. March 29 in the Student Activities Center.
