El Camino College to Honor “Distinguished Women” at Luncheon

In celebration of Women’s History Month, El Camino College will honor all past “Women of Distinction Award” recipients at a luncheon scheduled for 12:30 to 2 p.m. March 27 in the college’s East Dining Area.

At the “Women’s History Month & Cesar Chavez Day Luncheon,” guests will honor women from all over the South Bay who make a difference in their communities. Also at the luncheon, dynamic author and guest speaker Ann Lopez will discuss the struggles of women migrant farm workers and her personal journey “From Nature Lover to Professor.” Dr. Lopez is author of The Farmworkers’ Journey.

The “Women of Distinction Award” recognizes outstanding women from the El Camino College area, and honors them for their contributions to the community.

Honorees are selected based on their contributions in one or more of the following areas: professional accomplishments; leadership and/or mentorship; and social, educational, or health services.

Those nominated must also live or work in the communities within the El Camino Community College District: El Segundo, Redondo Beach, Manhattan Beach, Hermosa Beach, Lawndale, Lennox, Inglewood, Hawthorne, and Torrance.
