El Camino College to Administer Dining Preferences Survey

Do you buy food or drink on campus? What kinds of food do you eat (or would like to eat) while on campus? El Camino College would like to hear about your dining preferences through an online survey administered this spring.

The online survey is brief – it only takes 5 to 10 minutes. Topics include: the kinds of foods you typically eat, why you eat on campus (or select off-campus options), satisfaction with current offerings, and possible future menu items and dining locations.

The survey will be available to students, faculty and staff through early May. To complete the survey, click on the link below: <http://www.elcamino.edu/cgi-bin/rws4.pl?FORM=DiningSurvey>.

The information will be used to gauge student and employee satisfaction with current dining offerings as well as to guide future food services planning.
