El Camino College Teacher Education Program to Sponsor Guest Speaker Symposium

El Camino College's Teacher Education Program (TEP) will sponsor its first-ever Guest Speakers' Symposium from 8:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. April 26 on the Torrance-area campus, 16007 Crenshaw Boulevard, near Torrance.

The speakers' series will feature more than 25 sessions on a variety of topics of interest for future educators and is geared toward college students who are interested in a career in education. Teachers from area schools will also be on hand to offer tips on being successful educators in their respective fields, such as preschool, elementary, special education, middle school, and high school.

Workshop titles include: Pathways to Careers in Education, Positive Discipline, Working with Parents and Paraprofessionals, Technology in the Classroom, Lesson Plans for All Grade Levels, Test Preparation Strategies, Interviewing/Resume Writing, Teaching to Diversity, Financial Aid, Stress/Wellness, and Men in Education, among others.

Reservations are required; there are no registration fees, but a $10 donation is requested and will go toward "School on Wheels," an education program for homeless children. The donation is payable at the door.

For more information, contact The El Camino College Teacher Education Program at 310-660-3573 or TEP@elcamino.edu.
