El Camino College to Present Career Expo / Majors Fair 2008

The El Camino College Career Placement Services Office and Career Center will join with the Daily Breeze, Vons, Disney College Program, Jobing.com, 93.1 Jack FM, Latino 96.3, and 97.9 LaRaza to co-sponsor the El Camino College 27th Annual Career Expo from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. April 23 in the library lawn area.

The Career Expo / Majors Fair is open to students, alumni, and the community, and will feature more than 50 employers and campus departments and programs. This event brings together job seekers, recruiters, and faculty members in an outdoor setting to allow potential employers of El Camino College students and alumni to provide career information and discuss issues of shared common interest. Admission is free.

The Career Expo / Majors Fair is a great way for exhibitors to showcase their company, distribute literature, meet face-to-face with prospective employees, and collect resumes. This is also a time when students and community members can explore career choices, employment and internship opportunities, network with professionals, and learn about the different departments, programs, and services at El Camino College.

Students are asked to bring resume copies and to “dress for career success.”
