El Camino College Alumni and Students to Present Photography Exhibit

El Camino College Alumni and students from the El Camino College Photography Department will present original images in a San Pedro art gallery exhibition scheduled for Sept. 4.

Titled "Collective Visions," the exhibition features a diverse collection of photographs. A reception begins at 6 p.m. at the Loft Gallery, 401 South Mesa Drive in San Pedro. Admission is free, and refreshments will be served.

For more information, contact El Camino College professor Darilyn Rowan at 310-660-3326.
