El Camino College Anthropology Museum to Offer Two Exhibits

The El Camino College Anthropology Museum offers two exhibits now on view and open to the public.

A photography exhibit titled, "Changing China" includes photos taken by participants in a faculty tour of China last August. The photographs depict aspects of modern Chinese life in cities such as Beijing: life in the Hutong District, from work to recreation, the explosive economic growth and consequent pollution, and the city's changing cultural values.

Another exhibit displays select artifacts from the Polynesian cultures of Samoa, Tahiti, and Tonga and presents a series of photographs documenting indigenous sites of the Hawaiian Islands.

The museum is located on the third floor of the El Camino College Arts and Behavioral Sciences Building (Room ArtB 301), adjacent to the Marsee Auditorium. Museum operating hours are from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday.

For more information about the exhibit, call 310-660-3580.
