El Camino College Graduates Receive Howard University Alumni Scholarships

Three El Camino College alumni have received scholarships from the Howard Alumni Club of Greater Los Angeles to attend Howard University in Washington, D.C.

Political science major Trina Peterson and pharmacology major Jonathan Lucas transferred this fall; and theater/dance major Renee Settle transferred this past spring. Peterson and Lucas were both involved in the El Camino College Project Success program, a student support program that promotes retention and transferring to the university level.

Howard University alumni executive committee members are El Camino College graduates as well, including President Brian Bledsoe, a former Project Success member; as well as Vice President Crystal West and Education Chairwoman Edith Romero, both former members of the El Camino College Puente Project, a student success and support program.
