El Camino College Photography Professor Honored

El Camino College photography professor Darilyn Rowan was recently honored on an international level for her skill and talent.

Rowan received one of the highest honors in her field when one of her photographs was selected as a finalist in the Photographer's Forum Best of Photography Competition 2009. The top 5 percent of entries from around the world were selected as finalists and will be published in the Photographer's Forum Best of Photography Annual: 2009.

This distinction follows one of Darilyn's photographs being accepted into the permanent collection of the La Maison Européenne de la Photographie in Paris.

Rowan has taught a variety of photography courses in the past 20 years at El Camino College. She has a bachelor's and a master's degree from Arizona State University
