El Camino College Anthropology Museum to Present “Tibet: A People’s Dream, Past, Present, and Future”

The El Camino College Anthropology Museum will present an exhibit which explores the multiple dimensions of Tibetan culture – past and present.

“Tibet: A People’s Dream, Past, Present, and Future” opens in the Anthropology Museum on Dec. 9 with a reception from 7 to 9 p.m. Refreshments will be provided, along with performances by area Tibetan musicians. The event is free and open to the public.

The exhibit will display exquisitely crafted historic religious art and artifacts from the Pieper collection and Pacific Asia Museum, and photographs taken by noted anthropologist Nancy E. Levine of UCLA. The exhibits document the varied peoples – nomads and farmers – of Tibet and their struggles and successes in facing the physical challenges of their starkly beautiful land.

The El Camino College Anthropology Museum is located on the third floor of the El Camino College Arts and Behavioral Sciences Building (Room 301), adjacent to the Marsee Auditorium. Museum operating hours are from 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Tuesday and Thursday and from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday, Wednesday, and Friday. The museum will be closed during the Winter Break beginning on December 19, but will re-open in February.
