El Camino College to Host Extreme Entrepreneurship Tour

The El Camino College will host a free entrepreneurial workshop for youth that will bring the country's top young entrepreneurs to the campus to help spread the entrepreneurial mindset during a half-day, high-energy conference.

The Extreme Entrepreneurship Tour will be at El Camino College from 3 to 8 p.m. October 20 at Marsee Auditorium. Students in high school and college will learn about entrepreneurship and how to take their career to the next level – faster. The fun, interactive event will be loaded with learning tools and practical advice about how to start a business.

Students are invited to spend all day at the event, or attend selected workshops. More than $300 in prizes will be available; light refreshments will be served.
