El Camino College to Sponsor Internship & Job Fair

El Camino College's Career Center and the office of Career Placement Services will sponsor an Internship and Job Fair from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Oct. 29 on the college's library lawn, 16007 Crenshaw Boulevard, near Torrance.

Students and the community are invited to attend and bring a resume. A variety of South Bay employers will be represented at the fair, from Aflac to Ziba, Inc. Other employers include: the Los Angeles city and county fire departments, Costco, Habitat for Humanity, Heal the Bay, JACK FM, Assembly member Ted Lieu's office, Primerica, the Roundhouse Aquarium, Santa Ana Police Department, and the Braille Institute, among others.

Students will also learn about internships – a great way to gain experience in their major or field of study. Participants will be able to network with employers, discover paid and non-paid positions, find work related to their major, and meet with counselors.

For more information, call the El Camino College Career Placement Services at 310-660-3593, Ext. 3449. A full list of employers attending this event is available at <http://www.elcamino.edu/studentservices/cps/fairsandexpos.asp>.
