El Camino College to Present the Art of Claudia Prada

The El Camino College Schauerman Library will exhibit the art of Spanish language instructor Claudia Prada through September. An opening reception is scheduled from 6-8 p.m. Sept. 10 in the Schauerman Library.

Born in Colombia and raised in Central America, Prada displays colorful folk art reflective of her roots. Her art reflects magical realism with a dash of North American and European influences added to her palette. The display is presented in celebration of Latino Heritage Month.

Prada has master's degrees from UCLA in Spanish-American literature and theater, and film and television. In 1995, she was awarded the UCLA Film and Television Graduate Woman of the Year Award, as well as the Edward James Olmos Award in film and television. Her animation film "After the Rain" was screened at the Latino Film Festival.

El Camino College is located at 16007 Crenshaw Boulevard, near Torrance. For more information about the art exhibit, contact the Schauerman Library at 310-660-6483.
