El Camino College Student Leaders to Organize Hair Donation Event

El Camino College student leaders are planning a hair donation event that features free haircuts and manicures for a good cause.

The entire South Bay community is invited to this second annual spring haircut-a-thon, scheduled from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. May 21 and 22 in the El Camino College Cosmetology Department.

Participants are asked to donate a minimum 8 inches of hair through Pantene Beautiful Lengths, a program that encourages community members to grow, cut, and donate their hair to make real hair wigs for women who have lost their hair due to cancer treatments. All donors will also receive a complimentary manicure certificate from the El Camino College Cosmetology Department.

“There was so much positive feedback from participants last year that we wanted to have another haircut donation event this year,” said student Jasmine Hormati, event co-chair and ASO vice president. “We extended the hours this year so more members from the community have the opportunity to participate as well. It's for such a good cause and it's simple and fun! We're looking forward to another successful turn out!”

The event is sponsored by the ECC Associated Students Organization. Cuts and trims will be performed by the ECC Cosmetology Department. For more information, contact Jasmine Hormati at jasmine_hormati@elcamino.edu or Brooke Matson at brooke_matson@elcamino.edu.
