El Camino College to Present Financial Aid Workshop for High School Counselors

El Camino College will co-host the California School Financial Aid Administrators (CASFAA) High School Counselors' Workshop from 8 a.m. to noon Oct. 29 in the East Dining Room.

High School counselors are invited to attend this workshop to receive the most up-to-date 2014-15 financial aid training offered in the state. Topics to be covered include: major changes to the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), state applications, and other programs. A question and answer period will also be offered.

This half-day workshop is sponsored by the California Student Aid Commission, California Student Financial Aid Administrators Association (CASFAA), Educational Credit Management Corporation (ECMC), and California Cash for College.

For more information, contact Hortense Cooper, director, financial aid at 310-660-3593, extension 3494.
