Hundreds of Classes Still Available – Register Now for Spring 2015 at El Camino College Registration ends Wednesday, January 14

Hundreds of classes are still available at El Camino College, where registration is underway for the Spring 2015 semester. Registration ends for full semester classes on Wednesday, January 14.

Students can find the most up-to-date schedule information in the Searchable Schedule: <http://www.elcamino.edu/searchclasses.html>. El Camino College's Spring 2015 semester begins January 17 for Saturday classes and January 20 for weekday classes.

For more than 67 years, El Camino College has served the South Bay community with the best academic programs and student support services. Today, earning a degree or certificate has never been easier.

Classes are available for adult learners who want to increase their earning potential with a degree or certificate. By combining evening and online courses, working adults can complete a degree or certificate in numerous programs without interfering with work and family obligations. Classes are available when students need them – after 5:00 p.m. weekdays and online. For more information on these academic programs, visit: www.elcamino.edu/academics/eveningclasses.

El Camino College is approved by the Veterans Administration as degree-granting institution for veterans and veteran's dependents entitled to educational assistance. A Veterans Center offers support services such as: access to computers, computer assistance, a study area, workshops, and referrals to a variety of resources, both at the college and in the community. Staff can help students with paperwork regarding their educational benefits, as well as assist them in becoming successful in the college environment. For more information, go to <http://www.elcamino.edu/admissions/veterans.asp>.

Students may apply and register online, 24 hours per day via the El Camino College website www.elcamino.edu.
