Registration Available Now for Winter at El Camino College Winter Term is January 5 through February 7, 2017

ECC honors student Chris Vazquez says that enrolling in the 2017 winter term is a great way to take care of a necessary class in a short period of time. The business major enrolled in ECC after graduating from Mira Costa High School in 2015 and is on track to transfer to a university next fall, where he will continue his studies as a business major.

Chris plans to take a psychology class and knows some friends who are taking general education classes during the winter term as well.

“For me personally, it worked out perfectly because I plan on transferring next year, so it reduced my class load for spring,” said Vazquez, who is a member of ECC’s Ambassadors and the Honors Transfer programs.

Registration for the winter term is now open. The schedule of classes, in both digital and searchable formats, is available on the web at <http://www.elcamino.edu/admissions/schedule.asp>.

The five-week winter term is scheduled for Jan. 5 to Feb. 7. Students may take courses to get ahead in their studies, repeat an essential course, and satisfy prerequisites during Winter 2017. A variety of both day and evening courses are available, from transferrable general education to basic skills courses. Distance education/online classes are also offered.

“Many of our students take courses during the winter term in order to maintain their pace to graduation or to meet program requirements in a timely manner,” said El Camino College President Dena P. Maloney. “I would encourage all to consider a Winter 2017 course – even lifelong learners – El Camino College offers a variety of classes to suit any type of student and interest.”

All students are encouraged to register early for the best class selection. Students may register online at www.elcamino.edu by clicking on MyECC. The college will be closed for winter break Dec. 23–Jan. 2, however, online registration is available at www.elcamino.edu 24 hours per day, even during the break.
