El Camino College to Present the Class of 2016

El Camino College will celebrate its 69th Annual Commencement at 4 p.m. May 13 in Murdock Stadium. Addressing the Class of 2016 will be ECC alumnus and former NFL offensive lineman Derrick Deese. Nearly 2,600 students will receive associate degrees, and more than 620 students will be awarded certificates this year.

“Commencement is a time of celebration as students achieve their goals and prepare for the next step in their lives,” said El Camino College President Dena P. Maloney. “We congratulate the Class of 2016 and wish them much success as El Camino College graduates.”

The following list includes El Camino College associate degree graduates from the South Bay.
