Former ITT Tech Students Invited to El Camino College Welcome Event Special event to highlight ECC's career & technical education and business programs

El Camino College and ECC Compton Center invite all former ITT Technical Institute students to attend a special welcome event scheduled for 5-7 p.m. Oct. 19 in the ECC East Dining Room, located on the second floor of the Bookstore Building.

Light refreshments will be served. Free parking is available in Lot F; click here for the campus map.

“El Camino College is here to support students displaced by ITT Tech’s recent closing. We hope former ITT Tech students will take advantage of the opportunity to learn more about continuing their education at El Camino College by attending the October 19th event,” said El Camino College President Dena P. Maloney.

Designed especially for former ITT Tech students, this event will highlight El Camino College and ECC Compton Center’s career & technical education and business programs, offering information and educational pathways in a variety of areas. Participants will also find out about financial aid opportunities, academic resources, and support programs. Counselors will be available to answer questions.

Students can apply and register now – mid-term classes begin October 22. The Winter 2017 term begins January 5 and the first day of Spring 2017 begins February 11.

Welding, administration of justice, CADD, electronics, nursing, business, manufacturing – these are just some of the fully accredited programs at ECC Compton Center. Tutoring, computer labs, small classes, and career advisement are also available to students.

At just $46 per unit, El Camino College also offers low fees and a convenient South Bay location. Students are encouraged to work one-on-one with staff to determine transferrable courses, set an educational plan, and investigate financial aid options.

El Camino College is located at 16007 Crenshaw Boulevard, Torrance.
