El Camino College and ECC Compton Center Welcome ITT Tech Students

El Camino College and ECC Compton Center welcome all ITT Technical Institute students affected by recent campus closures. Faculty and staff at El Camino College and ECC Compton Center are committed to assisting former ITT Tech students in obtaining an associate degree or certificate.

Prospective students are invited to learn more about El Camino College and ECC Compton Center academic programs and support services at an informational ITT Tech Fair for former ITT Tech students set for 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Thursday, September 15 at L.A. Harbor College, 1111 Figueroa Place, Wilmington, in room TECH 110.

El Camino College and ECC Compton Center have fully-accredited programs in business, industry & technology, administration of justice, firefighting, and nursing.

Students can apply and register now – mid-term classes begin October 22. The Winter 2017 term begins January 5 and the first day of Spring 2017 begins February 11.

Welding, administration of justice, CADD, electronics, nursing, business, manufacturing – these are just some of the fully accredited programs at ECC. Tutoring, computer labs, small classes, and career advisement are also available to students.

At just $46 per unit, El Camino College also offers low fees and a convenient South Bay location. Financial aid is available. Students are encouraged to work one-on-one with staff to determine transferrable courses, set an educational plan, and investigate financial aid options.

For more information and/or assistance, please view: www.elcamino.edu/ITT or contact the El Camino College Outreach & School Relations Office, 310-660-3487 or oasr@elcamino.edu.

El Camino College is accredited by the Accrediting Commission for Community and Junior Colleges, Western Association of Schools and Colleges.
