El Camino College to Present Mother-Daughter “Bollywood Tea”

The seventh-annual award-winning Mother-Daughter Tea at El Camino College will feature a “Bollywood” theme this year, with the festivities scheduled for 10 a.m. to noon May 13, in the ECC East Dining Room, 16007 Crenshaw Boulevard, Torrance.

This ECC Community Education event has become a beloved South Bay tradition, honoring the special bond that exists between mothers and daughters, sisters, grandmothers, and friends. The Association of Community and Continuing Education has honored the El Camino College Mother-Daughter Tea with its Excellence in Community Education Programming award.

Each guest attending the event will enjoy a Bollywood-inspired brunch and a temporary henna tattoo by the artists of Henna Tradition. Live entertainment will be provided by the classical Indian dancers of Nupur Academy (Kathak-style dance) and NityaShetra School of Dance (Bharat-style dance), as well as Bollywood-fusion dancers from Bollywood Magic. Also featured is a Bollywood-inspired photo booth, with each guest receiving a printed photo as a memento of the morning.

All members of the community ages 5 and up are invited to attend. Tickets to the Mother-Daughter Tea are $45 fee per adult and $35 for children ages 5-18. Seating is limited and registration is required.
