El Camino College recognized dozens of student-athletes through the national Scholar-Baller organization after an outstanding year in Warriors athletics.

El Camino College teams brought home several regional and state titles during the 2016-17 season. ECC's baseball team earned its first conference title since 2010, and finished third in the state. Catcher Trevor Casanova was also selected in the Major League Baseball draft by the Seattle Mariners.

ECC's softball team won its second conference title in three seasons and finished conference play undefeated in 2017. The men's volleyball team finished second in state, and the women's volleyball team won the conference championships and advanced to the California Community College Athletic Association state championships, finishing third overall.
