El Camino College's Symphony Orchestra to Perform Pops Concert

Relive the music of Jurassic Park, the Beatles and classic video games with El Camino College's Symphony Orchestra 8 p.m. March 11 in Marsee Auditorium.

The Symphony Orchestra, an auditioned ensemble, will perform "The Beatlecracker Suite" by Arthur Wilkinson, "The Lost World" by John Williams and the "Video Games Live Suite" by Ralph Ford. The concert is directed by Dane Teter and will feature vocalist Pat Thomas and saxophonists Lorenzo Ferrero and Anibal Seminario.

The ECC Symphony Orchestra is an audition orchestra for students who play at an intermediate level or higher. It is dedicated to the rehearsal and performance of the finest traditional and contemporary orchestral literature.

Teter is director of instrumental music at El Camino College, where he conducts the Symphony Orchestra and the Concert Band. He received his doctorate in music education from USC. A veteran conductor, Teter has worked with numerous bands, orchestras, and choirs from all over the Western United States. He frequently performs in El Camino College Artist-in-Residence recitals with his fellow faculty members and local musicians.

Tickets for the concert are $10 and may be purchased online at centerforthearts.org using the online ticketing system, or by phone at 800-832-ARTS. The Ticket Office is open Monday through Friday 10 a.m.-6 p.m. Campus parking is $3. El Camino College's Marsee Auditorium is located at 16007 Crenshaw Boulevard, Torrance.
