El Camino College to Present Spring Choreography Showcase, “Second Take” Students present choreography compositions in biannual showcase

El Camino College dance/choreography students will show off their skills in the dance department’s annual spring Choreography Showcase on June 1.

The Choreography Showcase is titled “Second Take” and is inspired by dance sequences in films such as “West Side Story,” “Sweet Charity,” “Chicago,” “Pina,” “Black Swan,” “Napoleon Dynamite,” “The Rocky Horror Picture Show,” “The Wiz,” “Fame,” “The Breakfast Club,” “Honey,” and “Step Up.”

Performances will feature works from students enrolled in choreography classes with genres including include ballet, modern dance, contemporary dance, jazz and hip-hop. The biannual showcase includes students from beginning choreography classes to more advanced dance ensembles.

Performances are scheduled for 1 p.m. and 7 p.m. in the Campus Theatre. The event is directed by Liz Hoefner Adamis, Jessica Kondrath and Kanisha Bennett.

Tickets for the Choreography Showcase are $10 and may be purchased online at centerforthearts.org, or by phone at 1-800-832-ARTS. The Ticket Office is open Monday through Friday 10 a.m.-6 p.m. El Camino College’s Campus Theatre is located at 16007 Crenshaw Boulevard, Torrance. Campus parking is $3.
