El Camino College Schedules Black History Month Events

El Camino College begins its celebration of Black History Month on Feb. 27 with a "Tribute to Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr." The Rev. Dr. John Hunter, senior pastor at First A.M.E. Church in Los Angeles, will be the guest speaker at the event set from 1 to 1:45 p.m. in the Marsee Auditorium.

On Feb. 28, a black history lecture will be presented by guest speaker Dr. J. Owen Smith, professor of afro-ethnic studies at California State University, Fullerton. The lecture runs from 1 to 2 p.m. in the library.
