El Camino College Schedules Career Fairs

Those looking to start a new career, or even looking to make a change, are invited to attend upcoming career fairs at El Camino College.

The El Camino College Career Placement Services office is offering many interesting activities designed to help students explore career opportunities.

First up is “New Year, New Job,” a job fair scheduled to run from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Feb. 22 on the Library Lawn. This is a great opportunity for students and the general public to meet and talk to many different employers from a wide variety of businesses and industries. Participants can gather company information, explore career options, and obtain employment – all in one convenient location.

A “C.S.I. (Corporate, Scientific, and Industrial) Internships Fair” is set for 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. March 7 on the Library Lawn. This is a great way to investigate employment in these career areas.

On March 15, a St. Patrick's Day Job Fair is planned from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. on the Library Lawn. This event will feature jobs and careers in law enforcement and business. Employers who plan to attend include: California Highway Patrol, City of Gardena Police Department, City of L.A. Probation Department, Department of Corrections & Rehabilitation, Federal Bureau of Investigation, Los Angeles Airport Police, Los Angeles County Fire Department, Los Angeles Police Department, Los Angeles Fire Department, Los Angeles County Fire Department, Santa Monica Police Department, U. S. Customs & Border Protection, and the U.S. Marshal Service.

Air Container Transport, Central Parking System, Costco Wholesale, Disney College Program, Easter Seals, Fortiss, FedEx Ground, Home Instead Senior Care, J.C. Penney Department Store, Victory Displays, and Waddell & Reed Financial also plan to attend.

In addition, the El Camino College Career Placement Services office is planning for the annual Career Expo for April 26. This big job fair brings together employers from all over the South Bay – up to 100 employers are expected to attend.
