El Camino College Study Abroad Opportunity to Ghana

An informational meeting for those who wish to participate in the El Camino College Study Abroad program in Ghana is scheduled for 6:30 p.m. April 19, 2007 in Music Room 7. This 21-day study abroad opportunity is set for January 2008 (Winter 2008 Session) and includes a stop over in London.

El Camino College study abroad programs include an on-site instructor and on-site staff.

Classes offered are degree applicable and transferable and include: Economics 5 (Fundamentals of Economics); Human Development 5 (Career Planning); and History 12A (Intro to African History).

Air travel, classes, cultural tours, room and board, and possible London excursion are included in the registration fee which is estimated as less than $4,000. Scholarships and financial aid are available.

To attend, participants must meet the minimum requirements – at least 18 years old, and completion of at least 12 units from any college, with a 2.5 GPA on a minimum. Those who already have a degree or are currently attending another college or university are also eligible to attend.

For more information, call 310-660-3702.
