PD268  The Faculty Book Club

Description:
The Faculty Book Club has chosen to read and discuss the book Brain Matters: Translating Research into Classroom Practice by Patricia Wolfe for our Spring 2009 semester. Wolfe’s book Brain Matters explains how recent research on the brain will help you apply effective brain-compatible teaching skills. Patricia Wolfe is the winner of a 2002 Ed Press Distinguished Achievement Award. Her knowledge of the ways that the brain learns should help us create and apply teaching methods that work. She recently gave a seminar at Santa Monica College that many teachers said was amazing. Please join us for what should be four lively discussions about Brain Matters.

The first 20 participants who register will receive a copy of the book at no cost to them (other than participating in the book club).

PD232   CPR/AED (Automatic External Defibrillator) Training

Description:
TAKE HEART! AEDs are here! Sudden cardiac arrest (SCA) claims the lives of close to 450,000 Americans each year. 95% of these victims die of ventricular fibrillation. Defibrillation can reverse SCA if it is delivered within a 10-minute window. The American Heart Association (AHA) adopted the four link chain of survival: (1) early access – 911, (2) early CPR, (3) early defibrillation (within the first 10 minutes), and (4) advanced cardiac life support. According to the AHA, for every minute that an SCA patient goes without defibrillation, the chance of survival drops by 10%. For anyone who has dialed 911 to request help in a medical emergency, it may have seemed like an eternity until help arrived. Yet, at ECC, average length of time – from receipt of call until paramedics in an advanced support (ALS) ambulance arrive – is only 5 minutes.

By placing AEDs out in our campus community, it is hoped that this “downtime” from call to electrical shock can be reduced, thus improving the chances of survival for the patient. We are asking that you join the ECC Police Department and Heath Science and Athletic Division in our efforts to continue offering the “gift of life” by attending this valuable life-saving training and becoming familiar with our AED Program and help us “electrify” El Camino College!

These classes are for first-time attendees and also for anyone who attended training last year and would like to be recertified. Recertification training is approximately 2 hours.
