

Workshop Information

Active Shooter Preparation

The purpose of this workshop is to inform and enhance personal safety for El Camino Staff and Faculty in an event of an active shooter.

Presenters: Chief Michael Trevis

Location: SOCS 117

Effective Strategies for Facilitating Student Learning & Success in the Virtual Classroom

Best practices in online pedagogy not only promotes effective and efficient approaches for facilitating student learning and success, but it also maximizes instructor presence in the classroom and creates an environment where students feel connected to both the instructor and to each other. Student engagement plays a critical role in creating and maintaining this type of environment, and it facilitates optimal online teaching and learning strategies at multiple levels (e.g. course foundation, content, assessment, etc.).

Presenter: Renee Galbavy

Room: SOCS 118

Financial Aid Updates: What's New

The workshop will cover the latest changes as it applies to federal and state financial aid and how El Camino College and El Camino College Compton Center plan to ensure compliance.

Presenters: William Garcia & Melissa Guess

Room: SOCS 119

Honors Transfer Program Workshop

This workshop will cover best practices in teaching honors, including a "fishbowl" panel with current HTP students and program updates. This workshop is intended for current and incoming Honors Transfer Program (HTP) faculty.

Presenters: Rachel Williams & Joseph Holliday

Room: SOCS 120

Introduction to the Online Education Initiative Course Design Rubric

Is your online course "exemplary?" How does it compare to other online courses? This session will introduce you to the Online Education Initiative's Course Design Rubric which our college has adopted as a guide for those who teach online courses. "Bring" your course shell for a real-time evaluation

Presenter: Gema Perez & Mark Fields

Room: SOCS 121

Student Equity Reenvisioned

This breakout session introduces participants to Student Equity Reenvisioned (SER). SER is an ECC initiative that addresses disproportionate impact and student equity by providing faculty with frameworks for creating culturally sensitive learning environments and course designs.

Presenter: Jason Suarez

Room: SOCS 122

Textbook Affordability using Open Educational Resources

With some textbooks costing hundreds of dollars, this session will introduce you to the Open Educational Resource (OER) concept as well as free and low cost resources that can replace traditional textbooks to replace costly textbooks

Presenters: Mark Fields, Oscar Serrano, Chris Wells, Lucy Alamillo, & Anthony Cuomo

Room: SOCS 123
