Table of Contents

Introduction 1

A. Description of Change to El Camino College – Background 2

B. New Educational Program 3

C. Description of the Planning Process Which Led to the Request for the Change 4

D. Evidence of human resources, administrative, financial, and physical resources to initiate, maintain and monitor the change and to assure that the activities undertaken are accomplished with acceptable quality
   Human Resources 7
   Financial Resources 7
   Physical Resources 8

E. Evidence that the institution has received all necessary internal or external approvals. 8

F. Evidence that each Eligibility Requirement will be fulfilled after the change 9
   1. Authority 9
   2. Mission 10
   3. Governing Board 10
   4. Chief Executive Officer 11
   5. Administrative Capacity 11
   6. Operational Status 12
   7. Degrees 12
   8. Educational Programs 13
   9. Academic Credit 13
   10. Student Learning and Achievement 13
   11. General Education 14
   12. Academic Freedom 14
   13. Faculty 14
   14. Student Services 14
15. Admissions 15
16. Information and Learning Resources 15
17. Financial Resources 16
18. Financial Accountability 16
19. Institutional Planning and Evaluation 17
20. Public Information 17
21. Relations with the Accrediting Commission 17

G. Evidence that each accreditation standard will be fulfilled after the change and that all relevant Commission policies are addressed. 17

Appendices

A. Board of Trustees Motion

B. Partnership Proposal

C. Compton College Student Equity Report

D. AB 318

E. External Agencies
   1 E-mail from Rich Kollen to John Baker, dated 7/24/06
   2 E-mail from Carlyle Carter to Ian Haslam, dated 8/2/06
   3 Letter from Miyo Minato to Katherine Townsend, dated 7/26/06
   4 E-mail from Barbara Beno to Francisco Arce, dated 7/19/06
   5 E-mail from Robert Turnage to Jeff Marsee, dated 6/26/06
   6 Letter from Thomas Henry to Thomas Fallo, dated 6/13/06

F. Marketing Plan