

What are Student Learning Outcomes?

SLOs are the results or evidence of student learning. They demonstrate the extent that student performance meets expectations of learning.

These results are to be collected at the course, program and college levels.

Not only must SLOs be collected, they must be shared widely and used for the improvement of teaching and learning and for the improvement of the college as a whole.

Source: California Community College Central Region Consortium