GENERAL INFORMATION AND DEFINITIONS

Residence

The location with which a person is considered to have the most settled and permanent connection; it is also the place where that person intends to remain, and during absences, intends to return. Residence results from the union of physical presence with objective evidence that the intent is to remain at that place for other than a temporary purpose.

Reference: ECS 68062, T5 54020

Resident

A student who has established both physical presence and intent to make California the permanent home (domicile), for more than one year pursuant to the California Education Code, as of the residence determination date is, unless prohibited by law or regulation, to be considered a resident.

Reference: ECS 68017, ECS 68060

Burden of Proof

The burden is on the student to demonstrate clearly, with proof, both physical presence in California and intent to establish California residence.

Reference: ECS 68041, T5 54026

Reestablished Residence

If a student or the parents of a minor student relinquish California residence after moving from California, one full year of physical presence, coupled with one full year of demonstrated intent to be a California resident, is required to reestablish residence.

Reference: T5 54030

Residence Determination Date

That day immediately preceding the opening day of instruction of the semester or session as set by the district governing board, during which the student proposes to attend a college.

Reference: ECS 68023, T5 54002

Conduct Inconsistent With a Claim for California Residence

This includes but is not limited to:

Maintaining voter registration and voting in another state.

Being a petitioner for a divorce or lawsuit as a resident in another state.

Attending an out-of-state institution as a resident of that state.

Declaring non-residence for California income tax purposes.

Reference: T5 54024

Military Personnel

The laws and regulations governing residency and residency determination for military personnel and their dependents are complex. These students are encouraged to make an appointment with the Veterans Services Specialist in Admissions if they have any questions.

Alien Students

A student who is an alien may establish his or her residence pursuant to the provisions of the California Education Code if not precluded by the Immigration and Nationality Act from establishing domicile in the United States; provided that the student has had residence in California for more than one year prior to the residence determination date for the semester or session for which attendance is proposed. Reference: ECS 68062(h), T5 54045

An alien is precluded from establishing domicile in the United States if the alien entered the United States illegally, or under a visa which requires that the alien have residence outside of the United States, or that he or she entered the United States solely for a temporary purpose. An alien is precluded from establishing domicile in the United States and shall not be classified as a resident of this state if he or she holds a visa of the following types: B-1, B-2; C; D-1, D-2; F-1, F-2; H-2, H-3; J-1, J-2; M-1, M-2; O-2; P-1, P-2, P-3, P-4; Q; TN, TD.
