We are proud to announce that on Thursday, May 3, 2007, 10 new inductees were honored before a record-setting crowd of 240 alumni and friends at the 20th Annual Athletic Hall of Fame induction dinner at Los Verdes Golf Club.

Since the 1988 inception of the Hall of Fame, we have inducted 195 athletes and supporters of El Camino College. This year's event was special in many ways – especially because we marked our 20th anniversary of the Hall of Fame, and we celebrated the 60th year of El Camino College athletics.

It was a privilege to host such a unique and distinguished gathering of former inductees and prominent guests. Among the attendees, we counted 30 former inductees, 15 former baseball players (in honor of former Coach Chuck Freeman), plus 11 former wrestlers to reunite with their former coach, Dave Hengsteler.

Our exceptional guest hosts for the evening were William Mealer, MD, El Camino College's team physician who introduced us to Jim Knue, former ECC athletic trainer. John Featherstone and USC football coach Steve Sarkisian also gave a stirring introduction of Fred Petersen, which proved to be very emotional.

Ray Southstone introduced former wrestling coach Dave Hengsteler, who presented induction awards to two of his former wrestlers, Norm Dean and Steve Warren. Kristi Loesener introduced and presented the award to former ECC basketball player Stephanie Duke. Sid Semon, former NFL official and cousin of Chuck Freeman, introduced Chuck to the assembly and presented his award. Coach Dean Lofgren presented Kevin Elliott an award to the former El Camino College and Trojan running great. Southstone had the distinct honor of presenting awards to Rich Fernandez, outstanding former cross country and track runner; Robin Dreizler, former El Camino College baseball standout and now ECC administrative member; and former ECC dean and chemistry professor William Mooney.

One of the extra surprises was the presentation of a $1,000 donation to the Athletic Hall of Fame by John Carbray in recognition of Chuck Freeman's induction, on behalf of his former baseball team.

Athletic Director Rory Natividad presented the Dr. James Schwartz Athlete of the Year Award to Kacey Martinez for women's volleyball and softball; and to Daniel Belay for cross country and track. The annual Norm Verry Scholar awards were presented to Kacey Martinez and Andrew Saldivar for volleyball.

The 2007 Athletic Hall of Fame Inductees:

Norm Dean – Wrestling (1965–1967)

Dean began his successful prep wrestling career at Mira Costa, then won a state title for El Camino College in 1965. He was named the Outstanding Community College Wrestler of 1966. He was WAC and AAU Champ at Arizona State in 1967.

Robin Dreizler – Baseball (1978-1980)

Now ECC director of outreach and school relations, Dreizler was a Second-Team All-Conference catcher for the Warriors in 1980 and was named first team All-CIF at Redondo Union High. He also was a pitching coach at UC Irvine and UCLA.

Stephanie Duke – Basketball (1992-1994)

Stephanie is a former Mira Costa basketball star who also played for El Camino College's women's team before transferring to California State University, Hayward. She is now the head women's coach at the College of Notre Dame.

Kevin Elliott – Cross Country/Track (1999-2000)

After an outstanding career at Mira Costa, Kevin spent two years running track and field and cross country for ECC, clinching conference titles in the 800 and 1,500 meters. He transferred to USC and continued his running success.

Richard Fernandez – Cross Country/Track (1960-1962)

Fernandez also comes from Mira Costa and brought his talent to ECC in 1960. He helped the Warriors' cross country team gain top ranking in the state, also setting course records and winning the individual title at the finals.

Serge “Chuck” Freeman – Baseball Coach (1958-1970)

Freeman coached at Inglewood High from 1954-58, then joined El Camino College in 1958, leading the Warriors to the Metropolitan Conference title that same year. He coached at the college until 1970, and is the author of several books.

Jim Knue – Athletic Trainer (1977-1999)

Knue worked at El Camino College for 22 years as an athletic trainer. He now works as the health supervisor for the Cirque Du Soleil show “Love” in Las Vegas, and has been the primary athletic trainer for several of the Cirque Du Soleil shows.

William Mooney Jr. – Dean of Health & Physical Ed. (1954-1956)

As the former Dean of Health and Physical Education at El Camino College, Mooney helped shape the college's athletic program, including the intramural program. He joined the faculty in 1950 and taught until his 1988 retirement.

Fred Petersen – Football Coach (1984-2007)

Petersen is a former head varsity coach for football and wrestling at West High School, winning two state titles and coach of the year honors. At ECC he was an assistant offense coach, then offensive coordinator from 1993 - 2004.

Steve Warren – Wrestling (1966/1967)

Warren is another outstanding athlete from Mira Costa High School, where he wrestled for Coach Jack Fernandez, and won several league titles. In 1966 he joined the ECC wrestling team and won the 1967 state wrestling title in his division.
