

EL CAMINO COLLEGE CENTER FOR THE ARTS

presents

2016-17 DISCOVERY WORLD TRAVEL ADVENTURE SERIES

Explore Worlds of Wonder ...Right Here at Home! • 13 Exciting Films!

Monday, September 12, 2016

PERILOUS JOURNEYS

Karin Muller

The side of adventure most people never see. Travel alone. Learn the language. Eat the food. Live with the people. Follow the customs. Dodge the bullets. Survive the diseases. LOVE EVERY MINUTE!

Monday, September 26, 2016

HAWAII & THE SOUTH PACIFIC

Marlin Darrah

The voyage begins on Hawaii's Big Island, and continues to Oahu and Kauai. From here we sail south to the French Polynesian islands of Rangiroa, Moorea and Tahiti. French Polynesia embraces a vast ocean area strewn with faraway outer islands, each with a mystique of its own.

Monday, October 10, 2016

FLORIDA'S AMAZING WEST COAST

John Holod

We'll follow the coast north/west observing an incredible array of birds, mammals, marine life, flora, and more. We'll discover Florida's fascinating history and let you experience the lives of hard working gulf coast residents.

Monday, October 24, 2016

AN ITALIAN JOURNEY

Steve McCurdy

Through each scene from "An Italian Journey" you will gain a glimpse of Italy, her goodness, her hidden beauty, and her impassioned soul. You will come to understand her not only with your head, but more importantly with your heart.

Monday, November 7, 2016

MAYDAY, TUGS OF WAR ~ EUROPE

Robin Williams

This is an engaging yet educational documentary containing rare WWII archival footage. It tells the story of the Deep-Sea Rescue tugmen and their many struggles against enemy submarines, ships, aircraft, and the elements while also towing sinking ships up to three times their size.

Monday, November 21, 2016

BRAZIL

Ryan Pile

Imagine an adventure-filled, fifty nine day journey around Brazil! Venture deep into the Amazon, hang glide from the tallest ledge, inspect a coffee plantation, fish for piranha, climb the mountain top, meet interesting people and share their customs - all while exploring some of the most beautiful and panoramic destinations on earth such as Iquazu Falls.

Monday, January 30, 2017

GETTING THE SHOT

Rick Ray

From sneaking past the Khmer Rouge to outrunning Somali bandits, acclaimed storyteller Rick Ray shares the adventures behind his most compelling footage. Stories and clips from decades of misadventures will mesmerize, as you flirt with international danger and intrigue.

Monday, March 6, 2017

BACK ROADS & BYWAYS OF AMERICA

Don Van Polen

Visit scenic and historic places, listen to the amazing stories of Mercer's Maidens, the strange journey of Willie Keil, the Redwoods of California, the Donner Party, Virginia City, Mount St. Helens and the greatest landslide in recorded history, San Juan Capistrano, and Cripple Creek.

Monday, March 20, 2017

OUR NATIONAL PARKS: SUNRISE TO SUNSET

Dennis Burkhart

Sunrise to Sunset, traces the sun's course, from the first hushed moments of dawn to dusk's final glow. We begin the journey by traveling from Maine to the Florida Everglades where the sun "flows over the land with the patience of honey." Such parks are havens for both animals and people and have influenced many lives.

Monday, April 3, 2017

ARCTIC SIMON, UNICORNS & TEETH WALKERS

Adam Ravetch

Simon Qamanirq is the real deal. He was part of that first generation Inuit, representing a very proud culture that has remarkable skills and knowledge of the arctic: making shelter out of snow, ice into fresh water, and turning a featureless landscape livable.

Monday, April 17, 2017

EGYPT'S SECRET SIDE

Karin Muller

If you read the tourist brochures, Egypt is all about pharaohs and pyramids. The evening news commonly depicts conflict and extremism. Neither could be further from the truth. "EGYPT'S SECRET SIDE" takes you on a dramatic, fast-paced, and unforgettable journey through a side of Egypt that few Westerners will ever see.

Monday, May 1, 2017

MAGNIFICENT RHINE: BASEL TO AMSTERDAM

Clint Denn

A visit to Amsterdam would not be considered complete without a scenic canal trip or a stop at a Dutch windmill. The dramatic and varied scenery combines with a diverse selection of villages, small towns and major world-class cities to produce a memorable voyage of discoveries while "Cruising the Rhine."

Monday, May 15, 2017

GHOSTS OF THE GOLD RUSH!

Gray Warriner

Tombstone! Deadwood! Even today, these names conger images of the Wild West... of a time when death was quick and justice was slow. In response, the gold rush town of Bannack, Montana formed a Vigilance Committee. Within days road agents were swinging from makeshift gallows and sturdy tree limbs. Within weeks, new words entered our language: vigilante and vigilante justice!

7 & 13 FILM TICKET PACKAGES ON SALE NOW!

MARSEE AUDITORIUM @ EL CAMINO COLLEGE

FILMS ARE SHOWN AT 3:00 P.M. & 7:30 P.M. • SEASON TICKETS ARE VALID FOR EITHER SHOWING
GENERAL ADMISSION – FULL SEASON $91 • HALF-SEASON $46 • INCLUDES PARKING AND SERVICE CHARGE
SENIOR/STUDENT DISCOUNT – FULL SEASON $78 • HALF-SEASON $39 • INCLUDES PARKING AND SERVICE CHARGE
*SINGLE TICKETS AVAILABLE - $9 GENERAL ADMISSION | $8 SENIORS AND STUDENTS

THREE CONVENIENT WAYS TO ORDER:

ECC TICKET OFFICE | CHARGE-BY-PHONE: 1-800-832-ARTS | ONLINE: www.centerforthearts.org

*$3 PER TICKET SERVICE CHARGE ON ALL PHONE AND ONLINE ORDERS • $3 PARKING PERMIT REQUIRED
ALL FILMS ARE SUBJECT TO CHANGE WITHOUT NOTICE. NO REFUNDS—NO EXCHANGES