App Attack!/Code Breakers (Grades 6-8)

#9730002

During App Attack! week 1, you'll take the first steps into the world of mobile app design and customize your own game app! Using a specialized app & game development tool, students will explore the world of web-based (HTML5) mobile apps. In addition to learning the basics of mobile app design and game development, you will also see firsthand how the world of App publishing functions. Student-created apps will be accessible on a private site and can be played on any mobile device or computer. Publishing to App Stores not included. No prior experience is necessary and students do not need to own a smartphone or tablet to take the class.

During Code Breakers week 2, you'll learn the basics of coding languages like HTML, JavaScript, and CSS through a series of web projects and design challenges each day and be on your way to becoming the next tech star! Whether you want to be the next Mark Zuckerberg or the high school student who just made $1 million dollars for programming in his bedroom, this course has the essentials you need to begin your journey. Please note: Projects will be available on a Black Rocket website to share with friends and family. Students will work in pairs or teams for most of the course.

Mon, Tue, Wed, Thu, Fri 12:15 PM - 2:15 PM; 9 sessions; starting June 26, 2017, ending July 7, 2017; (No class on July 4, 2017)

Tuition: $220

Instructor: Brandon Marshall

Make Your First Video Game! & Video Game Animation (Grades 6-8)

#9730006

In Make Your First Video Game! week 1, you'll learn to make your first video game in this one-of-a-kind class that shows you the keys to designing your first 2D platformer game. Conceptualization, play experience, level design, graphics, sounds, and simple coding are just some of the concepts that we'll explore. No prior experience necessary, just a desire to have fun.

In Video Game Animation week 2, you'll take your game design skills to the next level by creating and animating your own character sprites, objects, and backgrounds. Start with a name, develop the character's personality, signature moves, special powers, and a story line. Finish with a fully animated character to be used in your very own game. Students do not need any prior experience in game design, animation, or sketching. Please note: Student-created games will be available on a password protected Black Rocket website to share with friends and family. Games are only compatible on PC computers; Mac versions can be created after the program for $15.00 conversion fee. Students will work in pairs or teams for most of the program.

Mon, Tue, Wed, Thu, Fri 12:15 PM - 2:15 PM; 10 sessions; starting July 24, 2017, ending August 4, 2017

Tuition: $245

Instructor: Brandon Marshall

Minecraft Modders & Minecraft Designers (Grades 6-8) #9730004

In Minecraft(R) Modders week 1, you'll use your favorite game to learn the basics of modding and foundations of programming. Learn scripting and logic statements as you create your first mods! Introductory coding will also be taught through a simulated environment inspired by Minecraft. Student projects will be available on a password protected Black Rocket website to share with friends and family.

In Minecraft(R) Designers week 2, you'll learn how to create a custom map, the basics of creating 3D models using a new software to design your very own objects, how to build with Redstone and Command blocks, and create custom textures for you to import at home or share with friends. Please note: To access their project at home students, must own a PC/MAC version of Minecraft. Tablet, phone, and game console versions of Minecraft are not compatible. Parent email address is required to use 3D modeling software. Students will work in pairs or teams for most of the program.

Mon, Tue, Wed, Thu, Fri 9:15 AM - 11:15 AM; 10 sessions; starting July 10, 2017, ending July 21, 2017

Tuition: $245

Creative Writing Camp: Common Core Creativity (Grades 6-8) #435017

"It's not inspiration, it's perspiration." This is a truism relating to any creative endeavor – it's work. This class will help students not only work hard but work smart. A variety of cleverly contrived lesson plans and PowerPoint presentations will enable students to look past the usual barriers that impede creative thought so that they can dig deep into the inner person to reveal and reclaim the ethereal truth. Self expression from the student will be illustrated in a variety of media, especially the written word. When completing this course, students will be able to: Unlock the creative centers in the brain for self-expression. Practice several creative writing techniques, including narrative, prose, and poetry. Instill clarity into their writing through creative composition. Understand Common Core complexities. Demonstrate the usefulness and marketability of creative thought processes.

Mon, Tue, Wed, Thu, Fri 12:15 PM - 2:15 PM; 10 sessions; starting July 10, 2017, ending July 21, 2017

Tuition: $199

Certified Food Protection Manager #300123

Attention food operation owners, kitchen managers and food handler supervisors! This one day class prepares you to take the examination needed to certify or recertify you as a Certified Food Protection Manager (CFPM). This certification requirement is mandated by California State law for all retail food operations (restaurants, cafes, markets, mobile carts, caterers, etc.) and is enforced by local health departments. A CFPM is a certificate that is to be obtained by the owner or employee of food facilities that prepare, handle, or serve non-prepackaged potentially hazardous food. There shall be at least one CFPM person at each food facility. This college's program (course, instructor, proctor, etc.) is on Los Angeles County Health Department's list of approved trainers and certification providers. The certification is accepted by all health departments in California and nearly all jurisdictions across the United States.

Important: Pre-registration required! Walk-in registration is not available for this class.

Exam/Materials Fee: Students who wish to sit for the exam during the last two hours of class will be required to use their credit card to make an online payment of $31 to the National Registry of Food Safety Professionals (nationally accredited, third party certifying organization).

Pre-class preparation: Students are expected to familiarize themselves with food protection concepts prior to attending class. Numerous sources of food protection information are available to help you prepare for the exam. Students may also utilize an online refresher training module and study manual developed specifically for this course. The training link and manual are to be requested directly from instructor Gevork Kazanchyan by emailing him at gev.kaz@gmail.com. All other class related matters should be directed to the Community Education office: Call 310-660-6460

Food Handler Card (CFH Card)

A Food Handler Card (CFH Card) is a certificate that is required by all food employees who are involved in the preparation, storage, or service of food in a food facility. The CFH Card is obtained after attending a food safety training course and passing an examination from an accredited organization. If you (or co-workers) need the CFH Card, use direct link below: <http://www.usfoodhandler.com/amember/aff/go/elcamino>

For additional information on the Food Protection Manager Certification, including how it differs from the Food Handler Card (CFH Card), below is an advisory through LA County Health Department: http://publichealth.lacounty.gov/eh/docs/CFH_FAQ_Final.pdf

For additional information on the certification exam itself and other available preparation resources, visit: www.nrfsp.com

Instructor Gevork Kazanchyan was a Los Angeles County Public Health Officer for 7 years. He is a Professor of Food Safety and directs the Food Protection Manager Certification programs at both College of the Canyons and El Camino College. Gev is also a Professor of Environmental Health at his alma mater, California State University at Northridge. He is a Registered Environmental Health Specialist with the California Department of Public Health and a Certified Professional in Food Safety with the National Environmental Health Association.

Become a Certified Therapy Dog Handler

#8300004

Anyone who has felt a connection with a pet and experienced that joy of unconditional love, understanding, and acceptance, knows the value of a pet's companionship. These qualities make animals, particularly dogs, ideal therapeutic visitors that bring smiles to patients in hospitals, calm travelers at airports, calm child witnesses during court proceedings, make good listeners for children learning to read, help victims of natural and man-made disasters, and newer emerging applications. This 4-hour class is for adults that want to expedite the process of becoming a registered therapy dog handler at the least cost. The class also prepares you for taking the live (with your dog) behavioral evaluation and the written online tests. Course includes an in-depth explanation of the entire registration process and strategies to help you choose a registering agency and environment that best matches your service interests. We combine lecture, demonstrations and videos of therapy dog evaluations used by different registering agencies. Please do not bring your dog to class. Wed 5:30 PM - 9:30 PM; July 26, 2017

COMPUTERS

Computer Boot Camp BASICS #500089

Do you know a little bit about computers, but are not entirely comfortable (and would certainly like to learn more)? If so, Computer Boot Camp BASICS is for you! You'll start by reviewing the Fundamentals (how to navigate around the desktop, exploring the Internet and email and more), then we will dive deeper: We'll show you how to compose messages; how to attach and send files; how to copy and paste pictures or content from the Internet into your messages; and (especially) how to download and save your attachments onto your computer. All these are hands-on, practical exercises to make sure you're absolutely comfortable with your e-mail. Finally, we will offer you "The Best of the Internet." We'll show you the top websites for shopping, blogs, entertainment and more! You'll learn how to use Facebook, Twitter, Pinterest and other popular social networking sites. You'll also explore the YouTube website to make you proficient with everything the World Wide Web has to offer!

NIXON PRESIDENTIAL LIBRARY

#020009

Saturday, June 17, 2017

After a year-long closure and a $15 million renovation, the Nixon Presidential Library and Museum has reopened. As observed by the Los Angeles Times, the various galleries present "an unflinching but well-rounded portrait of a complicated man whose long career has often been overshadowed by his quick and stunning fall from grace." The redesigned permanent galleries introduces the public to new and engaging displays that challenge visitors' critical thinking with a historical perspective of President Nixon's public and private life. The new galleries are enhanced with exciting interactive exhibitions and the latest in audiovisual technology. The New Nixon Library will interest a broad range of visitors, including younger, tech-savvy audiences. Enjoy lunch on your own at the Library's beverage and sandwich cart and explore the on-site gift shop. Step-on guide John Powers, who has extensive experience in presenting Nixon on stage, will prepare you for this journey with historical remembrances of the former president from the '40s through the '70s. Fee includes library/museum entrance fee and professionally-guided tour fee. WIZARD OF OZ--BAUM IN HOLLYWOOD

#020009

Saturday, August 19, 2017

L. Frank Baum and his family relocated from Chicago to Los Angeles in 1910, and it was here that he built a home, founded a movie studio, and wrote some of his most memorable stories. Also, it is here that he died and is buried. Trace Baum's "yellow brick road" into early Hollywood with John Powers, a writer with extensive knowledge of Baum. Discover Mr. and Mrs. Baum's first rented house in the Pico-Union area, the site of the Oz Film Mfg. Co, the location of their custom built home known as Ozcot in Hollywood, and walk the outdoor display gardens of the adjacent Los Angeles Beautification Team. Here you will enjoy a box lunch of your choice of croissant sandwich (ham, turkey, roast beef or vegetarian) along with fruit, a fresh baked cookie, chips, and a bottle of water. This journey will also include a visit to the great storyteller's gravesite at Forest Lawn Memorial Park in Glendale. If you are inclined, come dressed as your favorite Baum character. You'll be right in step with him! Depart: El Camino College lot J (in front of the Marsee auditorium) @ 9:00AM, Return: 4:00PM Sat 9:00 AM - 4:00 PM; August 19, 2017

*"I have no special talents.
I am passionately curious."
--Albert Einstein*

*"A playful mind is inquisitive, and learning is fun."
--Bill Watterson*

*"Imagination is more important than knowledge."
--Albert Einstein*

*"We don't stop playing because we grow old; we grow old because we stop playing."
--George Bernard Shaw*
