The El Camino College Community Education department was recently awarded the 2015 Association of Community and Continuing Education award for excellence in community education programming for their annual Mother-Daughter Tea event (pg 46), now in its fifth year.

These popular sold-out events celebrate and honor the special relationship that exists between a Mother and daughter, recognizing that this unique bond (whether by birth, adoption, or through the memories of our Moms, grandmas, or daughters who have left this world) is a remarkably powerful and important relationship like no other.

Each year, attendees learn how different cultures enjoy tea and celebrate Moms and daughters. The annual Mother-Daughter tea event is a quintessential community education experience bringing together various entities of the community including performers, presenters, businesses and families, for a shared learning experience.

Food Manager Certification

#300123

El Camino College Community Education is proud to announce that the County of Los Angeles Public Health Department has approved El Camino College as a provider of training and certification for our new Certified Food Handler program.

Attention food managers and food handler supervisors! This one day class prepares you to take the examination needed to certify or recertify you as a licensed food manager. The Certified Food Manager requirement is mandated by California State law for all retail food operations (restaurants, cafes, markets, mobile carts, etc.), and is enforced by local health departments. This program (course, instructor, proctor, etc.) is on Los Angeles County Health Department's list of approved trainers and certification providers. The exam/certification for this course is listed and accepted by all health departments in California. Important: Pre-registration required! Walk-in registration is not available for this class.

Exam/Materials Fee: Students who wish to sit for the exam during the last two hours of class will be required to use their credit card to make an online payment of $30 to the certifying third party organization.

Pre-class preparation: Students are expected to familiarize themselves with food-safety concepts prior to attending class. Numerous sources of food-handler information are available to help you prepare for the exam. Students may also purchase a study guide developed specifically for this class directly from instructor Gevork Kazanchyan. This is available for immediate printing/download (purchased for $15) via request through the instructor. Email the instructor requesting the access link at gev.kaz@gmail.com. All other matters should be directed to the Community Education office.

Instructor Gevork Kazanchyan was a Los Angeles County Public Health Officer for 7 years and is a Professor of Food Safety and Sanitation at College of the Canyons where he directs their Food Handler Certification program. Gev lectures for both their Community Education Program and Culinary Arts Department, and is also a Professor of Environmental Health at California State University Northridge. He is a Registered Environmental Health Specialist with the California Department of Public Health and a Certified Professional in Food Safety with the National Environmental Health Association.

FREE Computer Basics Classes

For Plus 50 Medical Billing and Pharmacy Tech Students

El Camino Community College was chosen as the first college in California to join the Plus 50 Encore Completion Program, a national effort to train 10,000 baby boomers for new jobs in high-demand sectors such as health care. The program is sponsored by the American Association of Community Colleges (AACC) and funded by generous grant support from the Deerbrook Charitable Trust.

As part of the AACC's Plus 50 Encore program, El Camino College is proud to announce free Computer Basics Boot Camp classes for adults age 50 and over who enroll in the Medical Billing and Coding (see page 35) or Pharmacy Technician (see page 36) training program(s) in order to maximize career success rates by eliminating technological barriers that might hinder adults age 50 and over from continued participation in the labor market. Students must be 50 years of age or older to enroll and must be concurrently enrolled in either the Medical Billing and Coding or Pharmacy Technician training program. Free information sessions for the respective training programs will take place in September; Pre-registration is required for the Computer classes and the information sessions by calling the Community Education office at 310-660-6460.

FALL 2015 CLASSES COMING SOON!

Computer Basics Boot Camp for Plus-50 Adults

In just three meetings you will absorb ALL the basics, including using Microsoft Windows and Word, saving files, sending email, surfing the Internet, downloading, and more! Come join the fun with an instructor known for his plain explanations and patience. Receive a Certificate of Completion to show your doubting relatives (100% attendance required). We assume you have used the Internet a little bit . . . if not, take our Computer Basics for Technophobes class first. $3.00 materials fee includes Certificate of Completion and a 58-page handbook.

Computer Basics for Technophobes! (a slower, simpler version of Boot Camp)

Here's a Computer Basics class DESIGNED for those who never used a computer, or who found there was "too much information!" in their last attempt. We cover the fundamentals (Internet, email, Facebook, and more) in a new way, with the pace set by YOUR questions, so we match YOUR learning style, or even your ESL background. Most importantly, you learn only what you NEED to know to get on the Internet! 10 students max.

Please choose your classes carefully. No refunds issued unless a class is cancelled by El Camino College. Credit vouchers in the amount of the class registration fee less a $10 service fee per class will be issued upon request 3 full business days before the first class meeting. Credit Vouchers are applicable toward a future Community Education class and are valid for 3 years.

IF A CLASS IS CANCELLED

Every attempt is made to contact students ahead of time. A full course fee refund will be issued within four to six weeks.

TRANSFERS

To transfer to another class, requests must be received at least 3 full business days before the original class meets. A $10 transfer fee will apply.

REGISTRATION CONFIRMATION

Paper confirmations and receipts furnished ONLY upon request.

If you register online or over the phone, you will be asked to provide your email address to receive an email confirmation indicating your registration-confirmation information. It is your responsibility to ensure the accuracy of all registration and contact information you provide. If you would prefer to receive a paper confirmation receipt, please visit our office or submit your request in writing along with a self-addressed envelope.

CERTIFICATES OF COMPLETION $5

If you would like a beautifully created Certificate of Completion with the El Camino College emblem and your name indicated, after successful completion of a course, mail in or phone in your request to the Community Education office along with $5 per certificate.

PARKING ON CAMPUS

A parking permit is required to park in any lot 24 hours a day, seven days a week. One-day permits are available for $3 at vending machines located throughout the campus (Lots D, H, K, L). Arrive early to park! Please do not park in "staff" or "reserved" spaces unless otherwise posted. Please note: Be aware of posted signs. Due to construction on campus, parking restrictions may change.
