Commercial Drone Pilot
FAA Part 2107 RPIC
Exam Preparation

sUAS (small Unmanned Aerial Systems) RPIC (Remote Pilot in Command) Training Program

37 classroom hours +
120 Externship hours

Pay per class or purchase entire 3-part series +
Externship at discounted rate $1,499.00!

Experts speculate that by the year 2020 there will be more than 23 million SUAS (drones) in service and based on the current aircraft to pilot ratio and the FAA requirement of one pilot per drone, there will need to be 650,000 commercial drone pilots to fly these aircraft. Currently there are only 65,000 commercial drone pilots, so get your RPIC certification for this industry that is taking off!

This 3-part Commercial Drone Pilot job training course prepares you to pass the FAA part 107 Remote Pilot in Command (RPIC) exam and receive their RPIC certification. The course work covers: Regulations, National Airspace, Aircraft Performance, Operations, and Weather. Additionally, students will be given physical flight training with various types of SUAS (drones). This program is designed to optimally prepare you to perform the duties of a Commercial RPIC that are required in any commercial drone setting including public safety, cinematic, realty, construction, transportation, and surveying. Students will learn to assist established Commercial SUAS operators in “real-life” situations.

Prerequisites:
16+ years of age. Parental/Guardian Release form required for Students under 18 years of age.
High School Diploma or GED/High school Senior

Course Work Requirements:
Attending 21 hours in-class and completing homework, quizzes and exams, successful complete 16 hours of SUAS flight training and successful completion of 120 hour externship.
To pass this program students must:
Score a minimum of 70 percent on the final exam (FAA Part 107 Exam).
1. Regular internet and email access.
2. Regular attendance required.

This 3-part program consists of:
Part #1 -- a 21-hour lecture and “real-life” FAA Part 107 RPIC Exam course,
Part #2 -- a 16 hour “hands-on” SUAS Pilot Training, and
Part #3 -- Externship – a 120-hour externship, to be completed within 6 months after successful completion of part 1 and 2. This program is designed to optimally prepare you to perform the duties of a Commercial RPIC that are required in any commercial drone setting including public safety, cinematic, realty, construction, transportation, and surveying. Students will learn to assist established Commercial SUAS operators in “real-life” situations.

What is the job of a Commercial RPIC (drone) Pilot?
RPIC provide unmanned aerial support service to a variety of clients in various industries. RPICs are responsible to:
• Develop SUAS flight plans in accordance with FAA regulations
• Assist in data processing of imagery collected during SUAS flights
• Coordinates and conducts SUAS flight operations, testing, and training
• Provide crew leadership for any anomalies or emergency situations

Work Environment:
RPICs work in variety of fields (cinema, logistics, public safety, agricultural, surveying and real Estate) and a variety of work environments as they perform their challenging job. Most work full time, but many work part time.

US Dept. of Labor Bureau of Labor Statistics:
Pay: The estimated annual compensation for a RPIC is between $25,000 and $70,000, depending on their expertise and the equipment they are operating.

Job Outlook: A 2013 report released by a trade group, the Association for Unmanned Vehicle Systems International, projected more than 100,000 new jobs in unmanned aircraft by 2025. Several factors will lead to increased demand for RPIC as the technology evolves.

Instructor Barry Brennan is the President and founder of Flying Lion, Inc. (FLI), a full service SUAS Solutions Company. Flying Lion is a drone service provider to Law Enforcement / Public Safety Agencies which provides On-demand drone Air Support, training, and equipment. Additionally, Barry has over 13 years experience as a reserve police officer and 4 years as a drone pilot.

Have you ever wanted to become a certified therapy dog handler, from a legitimate recognized agency, and bring joy and smiles to people in different environments and types of facilities? In this one-day, 4-hour class, you will meet a practicing therapy dog (and his handler!) and learn how to pass the therapy dog handler written and behavioral tests. Course provides a list of facilities using therapy dog services in your area, leading certifying agencies, dog training tips and resources, and post-class support as you work toward your therapy dog certification. We combine group discussions, lecture, demonstrations and videos of therapy dog evaluations used by different registering agencies. A comprehensive therapy handler resource guide with over 50 valuable website links is included in the course fee. Please do not bring your dog. Instructor Richard Katz’s mission is to significantly increase the number of dog handlers and broaden the usage wherever emotional comfort is needed. Before launching Pet Therapy Advisers, Richard was a Human Resource executive and management consultant for over 35 years focusing on executive search, job training and career counseling, and recruitment technology. As a past therapy dog handler for the UCLA Health System, and certified to provide therapy dog services for disaster relief, he obtained the highest “complex” rating from Pet Partners, the nation’s leading therapy dog registering agency. Richard will share his in-depth knowledge to help you become a certified handler in the least cost and most expedient way.

Certified Food Protection Manager #300123

Attention food operation owners, kitchen managers and food handler supervisors! This one day class prepares you to take the examination needed to certify or recertify you as a Certified Food Protection Manager (CFPM). This certification requirement is mandated by California State law for all retail food operations (restaurants, cafes, markets, mobile carts, caterers, etc.) and is enforced by local health departments. A CFPM is a certificate that is to be obtained by the owner or employee of food facilities that prepare, handle, or serve non-prepackaged potentially hazardous food. There shall be at least one CFPM person at each food facility. El Camino College (this course, the instructor/proctor, etc.) is on Los Angeles County Health Department’s list of approved trainers and certification providers. The certification is accepted by all health departments in California and nearly all jurisdictions across the United States.

Important: Pre-registration required! Walk-in registration is not available for this class.

Exam/Materials Fee: Students will sit for the exam during the last two hours of class. The $31 materials fee covers the cost of the National Registry of Food Safety Professionals (nationally accredited, third party certifying organization) exam and will be collected by El Camino College upon registration along with the course fee.

Pre-class preparation: Students are expected to familiarize themselves with food protection concepts prior to attending class. Numerous sources of food protection information are available to help you prepare for the exam. Students may also utilize an online refresher training module and study manual developed specifically for this course. The training link and manual are to be requested directly from instructor Gevork Kazanchyan by emailing him at gev.kaz@gmail.com. All other class related matters should be directed to the Community Education office:

According to the Bureau of Labor and Statistics, the medical billing and coding field is expected to grow by 21% between now and 2020. That’s almost 40,000 job openings in the next six to seven years.

In this intensive 100-hour job training program, you will gain the tools and knowledge necessary to become a medical billing professional. This series provides students with basic knowledge of the national diagnostic and procedural coding systems as well as introduces the process of filing claim forms. During the coming decades, demand for highly-skilled health-information professionals will continue to exceed the supply. Complete all 7 Medical Billing modules to earn a certificate of completion from El Camino College Community Education. Upon successful completion of the El Camino College Medical Billing & Coding Training series, professional certification with the National Healthcareer Association (NHA) as a Certified Billing and Coding Specialist Certification (CBCS) exam is recommended. Further seek advanced professional coding certification with other national medical coding exam organizations such as the American Academy of Professional Coders (AAPC) or the Certified Professional Coder (CPC) exam. Please note: Practical coding experience of 6 months to two years recommended prior to taking one of the advanced coding certification exams.

Course Module Descriptions:
You may now complete the modules out of sequence.

Computer Boot Camp BASICS #500089

Do you know a little bit about computers, but are not entirely comfortable (and would certainly like to learn more)? If so, Computer Boot Camp BASICS is for you! You'll start by reviewing the Fundamentals (how to navigate around the desktop, exploring the Internet and email and more), then we will dive deeper: We'll show you how to compose messages; how to attach and send files; how to copy and paste pictures or content from the Internet into your messages; and (especially) how to download and save your attachments onto your computer. All these are hands-on, practical exercises to make sure you're absolutely comfortable with your e-mail. Finally, we will offer you "The Best of the Internet." We'll show you the top websites for shopping, blogs, entertainment and more! You'll learn how to use Facebook, Twitter, Pinterest and other popular social networking sites. You'll also explore the YouTube website to make you proficient with everything the World Wide Web has to offer!

Instructor Paul Lance is the author of Just Tell Me How It Works: Practical Help for Adults on All-Things-Digital. He has spent the last 20 years at the intersection of entertainment, publishing and new media, having worked at Twentieth Century Fox and as head of the west coast office for HarperCollins Publishers. His workshops include the US Small Business Administration, Kaiser Permanente, Employment Development Department (EDD) and others. He was one of the featured presenters at this year’s AARP National Convention in Miami.
